Squad can use some help

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

It's a tight-knit organization of highly trained and dedicated professionals, who respond instantly when serious crimes are committed and help is needed.

Small, medium-sized and large communities benefit from the expertise of the Major Case Squad of Greater St. Louis.

GRANITE CITIANS know the value of Major Case Squad membership.

The double slaying of Carl and Susan Hoffman in late April and the Theresa Kichler case of some years ago are examples.

Right now, the squad needs "our help" — monetary assistance.

"Our help" means just that. Everybody can contribute to a fund to purchase a radio system and crime-scene equipment to enable the squad to function better as an investigative unit, a spokesman said.

PRIVATE CITIZENS, business and industrial firms, financial institutions and civic and service organizations, among others, are being asked for donations in any amount.

A goal of $5,000 is being sought from the Quad-City Area's businesses and civic groups, along with individual gifts from residents, under the auspices of the Crime Prevention and Awareness Committee of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

GRANITE CITY Police Chief Bill Harris brought the Major Case Squad's need for funds to the committee's attention.

A fund-raising drive initiated in St. Louis this summer has raised $37,700, or about half of the $75,000 needed, Harris reported.

MAJOR CASE SQUAD, c/o Granite City Police Department, 2330 Madison Ave., Granite City, Ill. 62040.

Citing the squad's "intense efforts in clearing the Hoffman case," Harris said more than 2,000 man hours were spent and more than 250 interviews were conducted in the course of the investigation.

"The Major Case Squad certainly was a great help in the recent double murder (Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman) and I believe we should endorse the program and get this information out to the public," said Walter Milton, crime prevention committee chairman, at a recent meeting.

The squad was first pressed into service here on Saturday, Aug. 23, 1976, when Theresa Kichler, 78, was found dead with a fractured skull inside her burning home at 4:45 a.m.

A DECISION was made at 10 a.m. on that day to ask the Major Case Squad for assistance, and 12 investigators worked around the clock, developing evidence until noon Sept. 4.

A 17-year-old Granite City youth was arrested Sept. 6 that year and was charged with murder, arson and burglary.

About 20 officers from the Major Case Squad and the local police force worked on the brutal killings of Susan and Carl Hoffman, whose bodies were discovered on May 1, 1986.

Price favors keeping U.S. judge in Alton

GRANITE CITY — Support has been voiced by U.S. Rep. Mel Price, D-Belleville, to keep U.S. Judge William Beatty in Alton.

Price, along with other Madison County officials, is trying to stop a proposed move of Beatty from Alton to East St. Louis.

PRICE HAS written a letter on the issue to U.S. District Judge James Foreman, said Bob Samples, aide to Price.

"The courthouse in Alton was built on land donated in good faith by Alton-area residents and it needs to be left in service in its present form," Price said in the Sept. 23 letter. "Of overriding importance is the issue of convenience and accessibility to federal facilities to those in Madison County and the surrounding area."

Price requested that Foreman provide him with information showing the amount of money that would be saved by moving Beatty's court to East St. Louis.

SAMPLES SAID Price has also written letters in support of keeping Beatty in Alton to U.S. Rep. Peter Rodino, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, and the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago.

Price has also asked Alton Mayor Bert Wuellner to estimate the amount of business Alton would lose if Beatty is transferred, Samples said.

Under the proposed move, Beatty would join U.S. District Judge William Stiehl Sr. in East St. Louis when a new $7.7 million courthouse is completed there in 1½ years.

THE ALTON facility, which houses Social Security and Internal Revenue Service offices, would remain open.

The Granite City Council unanimously approved a resolution Tuesday night calling for Beatty and his staff to remain in Alton. The resolution called the move "a breach of faith with the citizens of Madison County and a burden upon litigants, jurors and court employees without any reasonable benefit to the administration of justice."

The Madison County Board, Nameeki Township Board of Trustees and some Madison County cities and townships have passed similar resolutions. Copies of the resolutions will be sent to Price and U.S. Sens. Alan Dixon and Paul Simon.

White-collar contract approved

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — A shorter, but paid, lunch period will begin Monday for the city's white-collar workers.

A new 3-year contract, signed Friday afternoon by Mayor Von Dee Cruse, was approved Tuesday night by the City Council.

UNDER the agreement, white-collar employees will work eight hours between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., as established by department heads, with a half-hour paid lunch period. Employees presently work eight hours with an unpaid hour for lunch.

The contract also provides for a graded pay scale, based on job title, that will standardize salaries, said 7th Ward Alderman Jeff Worthen, negotiation committee chairman.

For example, all secretaries will be "grade six" and receive the salary agreed upon for that grade.

Worthen said this was devised due to people receiving different pay for performing the same job.

ALSO INCLUDED are a 4 percent raise retroactive to May 1, 1985, and a 3 percent raise effective May 1, 1987.

Employees will also receive five weeks vacation after 14 years of employment. Under the old agreement, the maximum vacation time was four weeks after 12 years of employment, said Lucretia Wright, president of Local 799.

Also included, but under a separate salary agreement, are police dispatchers. The mayor's secretary was not included in the new contract, Wright said.

"WE'RE NOT happy," she said about the contract. "There's still room for improvement."

"We feel it's a good contract," Worthen said. "We feel it's fair for both sides."

White-collar employees have been working without a contract since May 1985, Wright said. The new agreement will be renegotiated in 1989.

In Venice Report card summary coming

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

VENICE — Schools' report card, a proposed free-textbook referendum in April and an in-school suspension program are to be considered by Board of Education members at a special meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

A full agenda awaits the board, which was forced to postpone its regular meeting Thursday night due to lack of a quorum.

ROBERT N. VICKERS, district superintendent, rescheduled for Tuesday his presentation to board members of the district report card summary.

"I believe this is only the second time we've had this happen since I've been on the board," said Board President Wilbert Glasper, commenting on the absence of four members. He has been a board member since 1979.

"We've discussed in the past about the dissatisfaction expressed by some board members, teachers and parents on the textbook fee issue," Vickers explained Friday.

Board Attorney Mike Bilbrey has prepared a resolution for consideration by the board, proposing a textbook referendum in April, the superintendent said.

TEXTBOOK RENTAL fees were established in the Venice public schools after the issue received voter approval in a 1979 referendum.

Eliminating books also must be enacted by referendum, Bilbrey advised board members when the subject was introduced once again in September.

Collection of fees has presented problems over the past seven years, school principals reported.

Venice pupils have been required to pay yearly fees of $8 for kindergarten and special education since 1979. First through eighth grade pupils pay $12 and high school students pay $16.

ALSO TO BE reviewed Tuesday night is a proposal to increase the school district treasurer's bond to $1.5 million.

And the agenda includes setting of specific rules and regulations for a proposed in-school suspension program for grade school pupils.

Nursing home issue

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

EDWARDSVILLE — Along with the candidates, a $6.5 million bond issue will be included on the Nov. 4 ballot for the construction, furnishing and equipping of a new 200-bed Madison County Nursing/Sheltered Care Home.

For Granite City native Bill Rainwater, nursing home administrator, the bond issue, if passed, would mean better living conditions and facilities for his residents.

"IT WOULD greatly enhance the elderly's life in their latter years," Rainwater said.

The present nursing home, located in the old tuberculosis sanitarium at 2121 Troy Road, was built in 1925, he said. It was closed in 1969 and reopened in 1971 as a nursing home.

The building is on three levels, as opposed to the new facility which would be on one floor.

"WE'RE HAMPERED a great deal by the present building," Rainwater said.

The sheltered care home, located at 323 S. Main St., Edwardsville, was constructed in 1883, he said. The new home would combine the two facilities and would be built near the current nursing home.

If the bond issue passes, an average yearly tax estimated at 5 cents per $100 assessed valuation would be levied for 20 years to retire the general obligation bonds. The bond retirement tax on a $60,000 home assessed at $20,000 would be $10 a year.

RESIDENTIAL space is a big plus in the proposed facility, he said.

Rainwater has been operating the current 165-bed nursing home at a 99.2 percent occupancy rate since the beginning of the year, he said, with 75 people on the waiting list.

The new facility would provide 35 sheltered-care beds, 100 intermediate-care beds, and 35 skilled-nursing beds.

Giving the elderly a "home atmosphere" was another aspect considered in planning the new facility, he said.

INSTEAD of two beds side-by-side, Rainwater said, beds would be located at opposite ends of the room, with privacy curtains around each bed. Each room would have a bay window with a sitting area.

The facility would also contain two enclosed courtyards, so residents can be outdoors without the danger of wandering away, Rainwater said. Also included would be a kitchen, dining room, therapy rooms, isolation rooms and living rooms.

RAINWATER has been the administrator since Nov. 1, 1977. This is the fourth nursing home he has been associated with. He has also worked in private nursing homes, giving him an added insight, he said.

"I know both sides of the fence," he said.

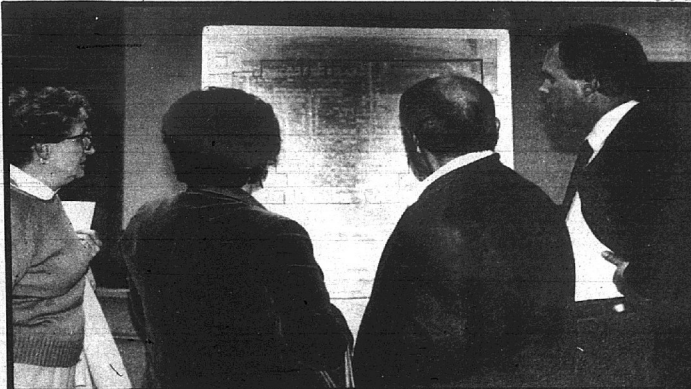

Little opposition has been voiced on the issue, Rainwater said. The strongest opposition has come from the Godfrey area, he added.

FIGURES SHOW there are approximately 22,000 nursing homes in the country with 1.1 million elderly residents, Rainwater said. The average stay in a nursing home is 5.94 years, he said.

Support for the issue has been voiced by some Madison County Board members.

"I'm in favor of it," said County Board Chairman Nellie Hagauer, D-Granite City. "If we're going to be in the nursing home business, I feel we should have nursing home facilities on one floor."

"WE NEED to upgrade the facility to give them (residents) better care," said Morris Miles, D-Mitchell. "If we're going to stay in business, we're going to have to build a new facility or get out." Locally, plans are still being discussed by administrators of St. Elizabeth Medical Center for the construction of a 100-bed nursing home, possibly in the downtown area. The new county facility would not hamper the hospital's plans.

Set clocks back

Daylight-saving time ends at 2 a.m. Sunday when clocks are turned back one hour and an extra hour of sleep is gained.

Daylight-saving time makes an early return next year when clocks move forward one hour on the first Sunday in April. A new federal law switched the spring changeover from the last Sunday in April in 1987.

Nursing home is important

To the editor:

As the former director of administration for the County of Madison, I would like to draw your attention to the need for passage of the referendum for a combined Madison County Nursing Home and Shelter Care Home facility which is to be voted on Nov. 4.

Currently, the two facilities are located in separate, multiple-story, deteriorating buildings in excess of 60 to 100 years in age, respectively. They house approximately 160 elderly and infirm persons.

The combined replacement and expansion of these homes to serve the residents of the county more effectively and financially efficiently will cost the average taxpayer with a home worth $60,000 approximately $10 per year in increased taxes.

An immediate benefit, however, is that the average cost per patient will decrease as will the dollars spent on the maintenance and repair of the old facilities. They are no longer and never can be made adequate to meet current state standards and quality-of-life considerations no matter how many dollars are expended.

In the past five years, for example, the county has spent approximately $750,000 on capital costs for improving and upgrading these facilities.

Many of these repairs, which were critical and essential, such as the installation of a new boiler, have a limited life expectancy due to the installation of a new boiler, have a limited life expectancy due to the fact that they are only part of an overall deteriorating system.

The waiting list for the Madison County Nursing Home is in excess of several months.

Additionally, the county is one of a few with nursing homes that accept public aid patients.

However, due to the age of the structure, the public aid reimbursement is only 75 percent of the maximum that could be received.

The reputation of the quality of both facilities is due in large part to the excellent staff employed. Without a positive vote in November, however, all of these persons will be forced to seek new jobs or become unemployed; ultimately, the county will not have the funds to maintain these declining structures.

For all of the above reasons, and to maintain an outstanding tradition, I encourage people to vote yes on Nov. 4.

Warning against nursing home tax increase

To the editor:

Do you want to pay more taxes? On election day, Tuesday, Nov. 4, you have an opportunity to increase your real estate tax.

Madison County has placed on the ballot a proposition for a $6.5 million bond issue to build a new nursing home. The first-year tax would be on a house with assessed value of $20,000, about $13 plus operating costs to an additional $5.

We take $80,000 to $100,000 out of the general fund to support the nursing home each year.

Furthermore, if you own land this tax would be on the land also. Undoubtedly there would be additional pressure to staff and maintain the new facility.

At the present time there are at least 150 empty beds in nursing homes. Many hospitals are converting to nursing home facilities.

It is your choice if you vote for the new nursing home, or if you do not vote at all and it passes.

Do not call your County Board member, assessor or Board of Review and complain that your taxes have increased, because I am telling you now they will increase.

The bottom line is: Can you afford additional taxes, and is the county nursing home needed?

Election charts attracted big crowds in GC

Election computerization is wonderful, isn't it? With a few exceptions, a neat print-out of the complete, unofficial Madison County results is usually available by mid-morning on the Wednesday after Tuesday balloting.

The punch-card method of electronic voting and vote counting produces a much faster pace than manual marking of paper ballots.

But not all of the past slowness was innocent and unavoidable. In close races for Illinois state offices, it was traditional for some Chicago precincts to stall while waiting to see "how many votes our ticket needs."

Did it ever happen here? Well, I can recall one election in which the Granite City confectionery didn't report its results until Thursday afternoon.

In the "good old days," all official ballots had to be sealed inside a special bag and taken by auto to Edwardsville, where the county clerk's staff accepted custody.

Poll judges were instructed to also make an unofficial tally of the various totals, on a sample ballot that remained outside the bag. (Perhaps two-thirds remembered to do so.)

The purpose of the unofficial figures was to aid news men and women, and county officials, in constructing a chart of the unofficial returns.

Such charts, which once attracted standing-room-only audiences in the Press-Record office, enabled trends to be followed and various candidates to deliver election-night victory claims or concession statements.

Spine-what like Henry Kissinger's Midwest shuttle diplomacy, it was necessary for news staffers to shuttle back and forth between the half-dozen or dozen polling places assigned to them.

It might be 11 p.m., 1 a.m. or 3 p.m., when poll officials finished their counting and wearily put on their coats, turned out the lights and locked the door of the rented voting place.

You could not get the figures until the formal count was over; helpful committeemen's "guesstimates" weren't accurate enough to accept.

As Yogi Berra says, "It's never over till it's over." But once the count was complete, departure for the Madison County Courthouse was swift. If a couple of your precincts finished simultaneously 10 blocks apart, your footwork had to be mighty nimble to avoid being lost.

Columnists' Club

By Bill Winter

Failure resulted in chart blanks that could not be filled in until the election canvass several days later.

Adlai Stevenson's name on your Nov. 4 ballot seems familiar to you, it's understandable. Although he is Adlai III, he's the fourth Adlai. Ewing Stevenson let politics get into his blood.

Back in 1893-97, when Granite City was being established, Adlai Stevenson (the present candidate's great grandfather) served as vice president of the United States, as the right-hand man of President Grover Cleveland.

Adlai's grandfather later held high office in Illinois. And the governor candidate's father not only was Illinois governor in 1948-52 but also the 1952 and 1956 presidential nominee (vs. Dwight Eisenhower).

Speaking of Adlai, he assailed his opponent for visiting a Chicago high school with U.S. Education Secretary William Bennett. He said the two were "playing politics with children."

A short time later, Stevenson spoke to a ninth-grade class in East St. Louis. Two "bad people," he told the students, had won Democratic state nominations, prompting him to leave the ticket and form a new party.

East St. Louis also is a city where Bob Gaffner is campaigning hard in an effort to defeat Rep. Mel Price. Gaffner on Oct. 3 brought a U.S. Commerce Department assistant secretary to talk about Metro East economic development, and on Oct. 22 and 23 Gaffner was in East St. Louis with a nationally known public housing expert.

It may not be difficult to keep track of four Adlaids, but consider the intricacy of our county's 1986 election. In charge is County Clerk Evelyn M. Bowles.

There are 24 townships, including seven with lone precincts. Bigger towns include: 36 polling places in Grant City, 35 in Alton, 29 in Wood River, 22 in Collinsville, 18 in Edwardsville and 15 in Godfrey. Of the 219 sites designated for Nov. 4, 66 polls — 30 percent of the county total — are in the four local townships.

With 38 different ballot pages, many of them reflecting differing boundaries and jurisdictions — and only a few of the 219 precincts having identical ballot combinations — an astronomical amount of data is involved.

To sort it all out must be a pressure-packed challenge for Miss Bowles, but she remains calm, professional and cheerful throughout the long election day and night.

One of the ballot propositions, a Triad school tax hike, has brought a rarity in this era of enrollment decreases.

The board has said that, if the bond proposal fails, its only alternative will be to double up, with two shifts a day for Troy grade school pupils.

I don't recommend it (because it's generally best to vote for specific persons), but it is possible to cast a party vote.

Five parties have qualified in Illinois: Republican, Democratic, Libertarian, Socialist Worker and Illinois Solidarity.

Even if you like Stevenson for governor, he won't like it if you vote for his full ticket. Nor would it gladden the hearts of Democrats, who have left their governor position open so that they can back Stevenson.

Sen. Vince Demuzio, Illinois Democratic chairman, is asking voters to cast a straight Democratic vote and then make two more punches — Stevenson (with Howlett) for governor (and lieutenant governor) and Spigler for secretary of state.

What nobody wants you to do is punch Number 54, for Illinois Solidarity.

Joining in a "please don't vote for me" chorus are: John Ray Keith for attorney general, A. Patricia Scott for comptroller, William E. Skedd for state treasurer, Elena Mulcahy, Philip Martin and James S. Spencer for university trustees and, for U.S. senator, Einar V. Dyhrkopp.

They filed because it was necessary in order for Stevenson to get on the ballot with a third party; his bid to run as an independent was rejected. They all (except Stevenson-Howlett and Spigler) are backing their Democratic ballot opponents.

Republicans say: "Don't be confused, vote a straight Republican ticket."

What decreases the attractiveness of straight party voting is that each of the major tickets includes officials who have won the hearts of the citizenry.

You cannot get anyone to bet against either Jim Edgar or Alan Dixon. U.S. Sen. Dixon is a Democrat and Sec. of State Edgar is a Republican.

There are no sure things, but close to Dixon's and Edgar's shoe-in status are Attorney General Neil Hartigan (D) and Comptroller Roland Burris (D).

For governor in 1990: Edgar vs. Hartigan.

Many people remember when Republicans were so detested in depression-beset Madison County that even statewide GOP candidates did little or no campaigning here, and county candidates had no chance at all.

But in the "roaring '20s" and prior years, this county was heavily Republican and it was rare that a Democrat ever won.

Now, the number who split their ballot has grown enormously, although Democrats still have a big edge in this vicinity.

A couple of decades ago, Republicans won the state's attorney and coroner offices (Bob Thomas Sr. of Granite City was coroner). And, in 1980, the GOP recaptured the state's attorney post for four years.

You read it here first.

In a Press-Record/Journal column early this year recalling U.S. Sen. Paul Simon's long career (including service as the local area's state lawmaker), I speculated that he might be a future U.S. president.

Simon read it and wrote a joking reply, indicating it was the farthest thing in his mind.

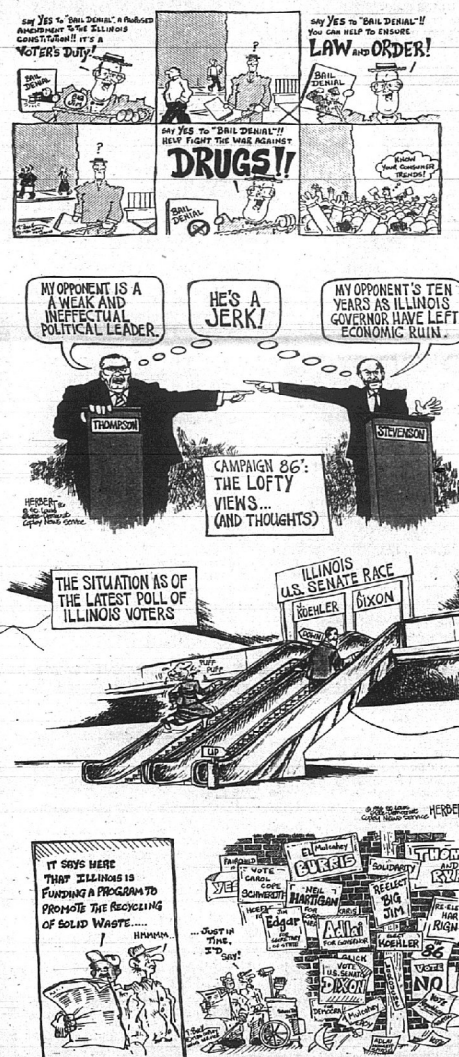

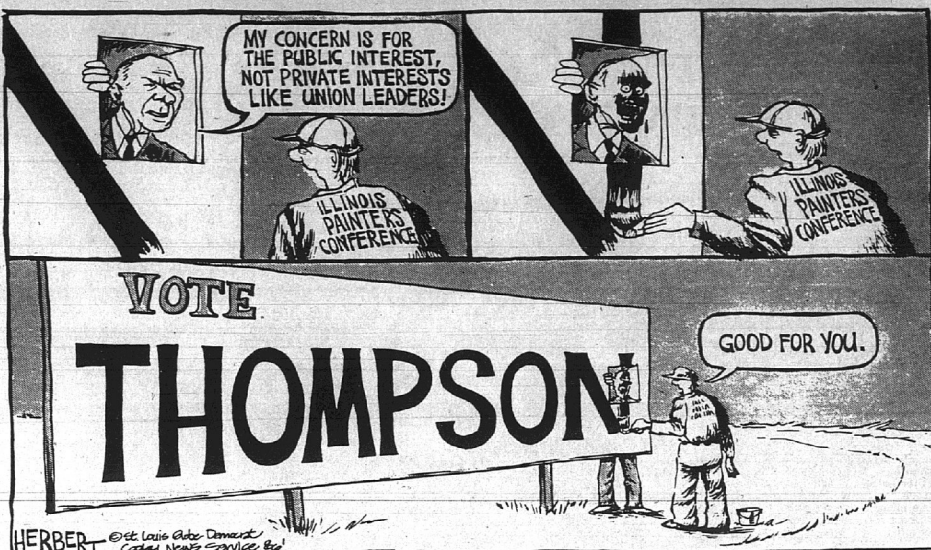

However, Washington newspaper bureau reported Oct. 19 that "Simon is considering a bid for the presidency."

The 1986 general election has not yet been held, but 1988 presidential competition is already well under way.

U.S. Rep. Richard Gephardt of St. Louis County is campaigning everywhere, including Iowa, one of the early '88 battlegrounds.

Simon missed the tax reform vote when it was scheduled unexpectedly. He was in another presidential battleground, New Hampshire.

As noted, you read it here first. It was several months after the Granite City column appeared that a number of congressmen cornered Paul and urged that he run for the top national office.

New computers coming to newspaper

By Jack C. Ventimiglia

Executive editor

Not so long ago, computers were rare machines at the Press-Record and Journal.

Prior to the merger, the two newspapers each used the same kind of machines — CompuGraphic MDT 3300s.

After decades of typewriting, the new machines seemed a bit intimidating, but staff members quickly found them to be more flexible and faster than typewriters.

MDTs have been used at the Media Mandarin

Press-Record for more than seven years. The grey and black machines, with their grey and white letters, are out of date now, like the typewriters they replaced.

That's not to say the MDTs aren't capable of doing their jobs; but they've reached the point where maintenance is getting to be a problem. They also aren't as fast as newer typesetting computers, and they have fewer functions.

In the interest of modernization, the Press-Record/Journal plans to replace its newsroom computers within the next couple of months.

From the news staff's standpoint, our jobs will be made simpler once we get over the initial learning period. For the most part, though, there won't be much difference evident to the average reader, unless that reader appreciates better newspaper design.

We understand there will be several design possibilities the new machines will offer over the old. Within two weeks, after I get back from Chicago and "computer school," I should be ready to take a byte out of the new computer and input information into this column about what to expect out of our new machines.

Madison stoplights to be improved

By Donna Kimbro
Staff writer

MADISON — Plans to advertise for bids in November to renovate electric traffic light signals at Third, Sixth and 12th streets on Madison Avenue were referred Oct. 21 to City Attorney Larry Hartman to study.

It was noted the estimate for the city's share of the cost is about $60,000. It would be paid on a monthly basis from motor fuel tax receipts.

Children in Madison who participate in the annual "trick or treat" on Halloween night will be protected on the streets by members of the Madison Police Department, the Auxiliary Police Unit, Madison volunteer firemen and members of Explorer Post 10-4.

Mayor John Bellico said the children will be permitted to be on the streets from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Oct. 31. Parents are being urged to have their children return home by 9.

Meetings have been held and another session is scheduled by the finance committee with a representative of an insurance company, on replacing insurance coverage for city employees. The mayor said there is a possibility the city can get good coverage at half the cost it is now paying.

Rick Tutka, city comptroller, is meeting with AT&T personnel in an effort to secure a city-owned telephone system. The initial cost would be offset to an extent by eliminating future costs, he said.

Aldermen approved payment of bills in the amount of $57,520.

John Dutko, city inspector, reported issuing 21 permits of various kinds in a two-week period.

Fines totaling $4,068 collected during September from Madison County and $163 from St. Clair County were accepted by the council.

Chief of Police Charles Bridick reported 128 adult charges in September and 12 juvenile charges. There were 79 state traffic violations, 17 city traffic violations, seven city ordinance infractions, five other city violations, four felony arrests, six investigations, four warrants and one mental case among the adult charges.

Four juvenile arrests were made for city ordinance violations, one for a state traffic offense, four in investigations, one as a runaway, one released to the Department of Children and Family Services and one warrant arrest.

Council members accepted a sealed bid for a 1960 fire truck, submitted by the Steelville, Mo., Fire Protection District in the amount of $3,000.

It was noted two men took tests at Edwardsville in seeking to become new Madison police officers.

Tests for promotion to the ranks of lieutenant and sergeant are being offered. An agility test for prospective police recruits will be conducted on Nov. 15 from 8:45 to 11 a.m., Chief Bridick said.

Council approval was given to admit Lester White as a member of the auxiliary police.

A letter from Paul Schuler, executive director of the Madison County Housing Authority, requested that the city provide a list of improvements needed on apartments of the Garasche and Grenzer Homes. Mayor Bellico said the list will be prepared and sent to Schuler for consideration and for notification of a date the work will be started.

Petitions available for city election

GRANITE CITY — The first day to obtain and circulate nomination petitions for the city election in April, 1987 will be Tuesday Oct. 28, said City Clerk Robert Stevens.

Petitions will be available in Stevens' office at City Hall, 2000 Edison Ave.

The first day to file petitions in Stevens' office is Jan. 19, 1987, he said. The last day to file is Jan. 26 before 5 p.m.

Four-year offices to be filled in April's election are superintendent of streets and one alderman in each of the seven wards, he said.

Secretary of state closings scheduled

All Illinois secretary of state offices and facilities will be closed for the general election day and Veterans' Day, Sec. of State Jim Edgar has announced.

For the election, they will be closed Tuesday, Nov. 4, and will reopen Wednesday, Nov. 5. They will be closed Veterans' Day, Tuesday, Nov. 11, and will resume business Wednesday, Nov. 12.

Moad not seeking re-election in April

GRANITE CITY — Sixth Ward Alderman Woody Moad has announced he will not seek re-election in the April 1987 city election.

Moad said he decided not to run so he can spend more time with his family.

Elected in 1983, Moad beat incumbent Alderman Walter Milton by two votes.

Moad has served as chairman of the planning and zoning and negotiation committees and currently serves as chairman of the police and industrial search committees.

Since being in office, Moad said, he started the industrial search committee and was active in the formation of the Granite City Youth Council.

Involved in politics for 10 years, Moad said he has enjoyed serving as alderman and has tried to do his best for the people in his ward and the city.

"That's what it's all about — the people," Moad said.

Study is presented to senior committee

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Copies of a needs assessment report were presented Wednesday afternoon to Granite City's Senior Citizen Advisory Committee.

However, committee members decided not to make the report public until they had time to read and discuss it.

RUTH REKO, a student at SIUE who prepared the study, was present to answer questions about it.

However, committee member Avery Schermer suggested the meeting be resumed in a week to give members time to read the report and ask questions about it.

Reko, who holds a master's degree in social work, said she visited many agencies, listed by the committee, that offer services for seniors. She also visited several other agencies suggested by individuals.

REKO SAID she was openly received by all agencies except one. Many of the people she spoke with were not familiar with the senior committee, Reko said.

Besides her findings, the report also contains her recommendations of services that need to be provided to seniors. The committee discussed the need for a senior information office as a possibility.

Copies of the report will also be presented to Mayor Von Dee Cruse and Granite City Township Supervisor Nellie Hagnauer.

REKO ALSO presented to the committee copies of brochures she had collected from each agency.

The meeting will be continued at the City Hall at 3 p.m. Oct. 30, when the committee is likely to make the report public.

Debates way to top honors

Southern Illinois University at Carbondale's debate squad took top honors at the Gateway Debate Tournament held Oct. 10-12 at the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

SIUC beat Central State University of Edmond, Okla., in the finals and garnered the "overall squad sweepstakes" for best all-around performance.

The team of Bibi L. Christoff of Granite City and M. Scott Parsons of Wadsworth, Ohio, took fifth place.

Dr. Valicoff opens practice

Dr. Philip Valicoff, a lifelong resident of Granite City, is a recent graduate of the SIU School of Dental Medicine.

He will be associated with Dr. Ingred Bauer in offices located at 3723-1 N. Meek Road, in two weeks.

While attending the university, Dr. Valicoff received the International College of Dentists award in his senior year. He also attended SIUE and graduated there in 1982 and is a 1977 Granite City high school graduate.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James (Dolores) Valicoff of Granite City and has two brothers, Ron and Jim Valicoff.

Boy Scouts plan future programs

Leroy Stark, Uniwah District commissioner, has announced a barbecue will be held Saturday, Nov. 6, in the American Village Shopping Center (next to Pearle Vision Center) between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

The price of a barbecue plate is $3.30 and it consists of barbecued pork steak, home-made slaw, baked beans and bread.

All proceeds will be used to build a handicapped campsite with appropriate facilities at Boy Scout Camp Sunnen for handicapped scouts.

Also, Cahokia Mound Council Moccasin family-style chicken dinner will be Nov. 9 in Edwardsville at the Moose Lodge (adults $3.95, children under 12 $2.75).

The annual district recognition dinner is set for 6:30 p.m. Nov. 15 at the Granite City Township Hall.

Annexations OK'd

GRANITE CITY — Annexations of four areas of land were approved by the City Council Tuesday night.

Approved were four ordinances providing for the annexation of 2300 St. Bernard Ave., 2329 Gary Ave., 2624 Pine St., and three parcels of land owned by the Norfolk & Western Railway, containing 158.3 acres behind A.O. Smith Corp.

The railroad property was annexed to the city and also annex 6.6 acres for the location of the $9.5 million Eticam plant on Illinois 3, two miles south of Heidman Steel Products Inc. The railroad land is adjacent to Eticam's.

Recycling of solid waste encouraged

As an early step toward a comprehensive solid waste management program, $250,000 in state grants has been awarded for recycling projects involving 17 Illinois businesses, not-for-profit groups and units of local government.

The recycling grants program is one of the cornerstone programs implemented in the new Illinois Solid Waste Management Act.

The grants were announced at the Illinois Environment Council's 12th annual statewide conference. The total allocations ranged from $3,000 to $25,000. The $250,000 for the 17 projects in state funds is being enhanced by nearly $700,000 in local share funding, for a total of $950,000. State funding assistance was provided for curbside collection, residential drop-off and buy-back programs, market development, high-grade office paper collection, and yard waste composting.

The announcement was the first in a series of recycling grant projects to be issued by the Department of Energy and Natural Resources

(ENR) under the solid waste program.

The grants program is designed to encourage recycling of materials from municipal solid waste through the expansion of recycling efforts, the creation of new markets, and the development of innovative recycling techniques.

Masonic honors

Clyde Beinfuhr

Contractors elect Rite's president

Clyde Beinfuhr, a resident of Mascoutah and president of Rite Electric Co. of Granite City, has been elected vice president of District IV of the National Electrical Contractors Association.

As district vice president, Beinfuhr will represent electrical contractors members of NECA in a four-state area — Wisconsin, Indiana, Michigan and Illinois — on the organization's National Executive Committee and will serve as chairman of the District Council, an organization comprised of officers of NECA chapters in the four-state area.

The National Executive Committee is the policy-making and governing body of the national group.

Beinfuhr was previously honored by NECA in 1984 when he received the James H. McGraw Award for Electrical Men, an award presented annually to one electrical contractor, by his peers, from among the more than 6,000 members of the association.

Beinfuhr and his company, Rite Electric, have been in the Illinois Chapter, NECA, since Nov. 8, 1964. Since that time, he has served in every office in the chapter.

He was vice president from 1965 to 1967, president from 1968 to 1972, chapter governor from 1972 to 1975, alternate governor from 1977 to 1979, and in 1979 was re-elected as governor, an office which he presently holds.

The Illinois Chapter represents electrical contractors in the southern two-thirds of the state.

Beinfuhr is a member of the Masonic order and a Shriner. He is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion Post 282, former vice president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and of the Chamber of Commerce, and has served on the City Planning Commission for 12 years as well as six years on the Zoning Board of Appeals.

He has been chairman of the Special Water District for 25 years. He served on the City Council for eight years.

Beinfuhr has also been active in national committees of NECA and presently is chairman of the District IV government affairs committee.

He has been equally active in chapter committees, having served for over 17 years on the apprenticeship committee and for the past 20 years on the labor-management negotiating committee in the Southwestern Illinois Division of the Illinois Chapter.

He is a veteran of the Korean War, having served in both Japan and Korea as a combat engineer and medical aidman. He and his wife, Eileen, are the parents of three children.

Hide tanning to be taught

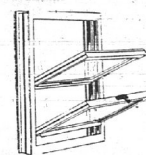

Cahokia Mounds Historic Site, in cooperation with Pepsi-Cola Alton Bottling, has announced a class for adults in Indian buckskin tanning. The class will be held on Saturday, Nov. 22, and Saturday, Nov. 29, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. Total tuition for the two days is $10. Advance registration is required.

Bud Scheller will instruct students in the proper way to tan a deer hide using natural materials and modern primitive tools. The class will prepare students for future tanning with the equipment made in the class.

Students need to bring one deerhide, one hide scraper, an 8x5 foot frame (made from four eight-foot 2x4s and one five-foot 1x4, and a 48-foot manila rope or cotton snash cord.

For more information, the Cahokia Mounds Museum can be called at 344-5268.

Program to fight drug abuse

By Jackie Adams
Correspondent

PONTON BEACH — "Let's All Work to Fight Drug Abuse" is the theme of a new program initiated by the Pontoon Beach Police Department.

Drug awareness information will be made available to Pontoon Beach residents upon request this fall to the fight-man department.

"EVERYBODY has problems with drugs or knows someone who does," said Police Chief Chet Ballew. "Starting an informal program like this seemed like a good idea."

Ballew said he was contacted by a company in Texas which distributes literature on drug problems.

A representative from the company persuaded local businessmen to finance the literature.

The chief and/or a police officer will attend meetings of any organization, church or school to discuss identification of various drugs and symptoms of their use.

TWO BOOKLETS are available — one for parents and one for children — called "Let's Play It Safe."

The chief said there also are displays and slides to be seen in the 45-minute presentation.

The chief said one presentation had been made to the Pontoon Beach Senior Citizens and that groups such as the Lions Club also are likely to be addressed.

"We've got two or three private schools out here," said Ballew, "and we're really anxious to go there."

BALLEW SAID any organization may call the station on Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at 931-0738 to request an officer to speak.

He also said at least a week's notice is needed to be sure that an officer is available.

The chief said businesses contributing to the program's financing are: Traffic Line Ltd., Five Star Plumbing and Plumbing, Vesci Inc., Flood-Centre Realty, Spartan Health Spa, Quality Sanding, First Choice Tire Co., Tri-City Rental, MAPCO, Lakeview Restaurant, Archer-Daniels Midland, Comfort Air Conditioning and Dr. R.M. Mueller.

CURFEW VIOLATION CHARGED

A 16-year-old Madison boy was charged by Granite City police with curfew violation after he was seen in an Iowa Street alley at 5:47 a.m. Oct. 23.

MAN BOOKED ON 3 CHARGES

John P. Catterson, 18, of 2201 Washington Ave., was charged at 9:27 p.m. Oct. 22 with disorderly conduct, resisting police and battery. He allegedly was standing in the middle of 22nd Street, causing traffic to be backed up at the intersections of Washington Avenue and Iowa Street. When asked by Officer Nedwin Tapp to leave the roadway, Catterson allegedly struck him in the chest with a fist, knocking Tapp backwards, and then struggled with officers while being handcuffed.

MAN SETS FIRE, FLEES; AUTO HEAVILY DAMAGED

Venus Arguello of Granite City told Madison County authorities at 4:20 a.m. Oct. 22 she looked outside a window and saw a man, believed to have set the fire, was seen running from the car.

The blaze started when a flammable liquid was poured on the car and ignited. The exterior of the auto was totally burned and there was extensive damage to the interior. Members of the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department responded to the fire.

HOUSE BURGLAR TAKES VCR

Gary Taylor, 2520 W. 20th St., said Oct. 19 a burglar entered his home and took a video cassette recorder.

MONEY, FOOD STAMPS TAKEN

Patricia Liss of 3602 Kirkpatrick Homes reported Oct. 19 someone took $127 in cash and $210 in food stamps from her purse.

BURGLAR TAKES RADIOS

Earl High, 2350 State St., said Oct. 19 a burglar took a stereo, two clock radios/telephones and 35 cassette tapes from his home. Value of the missing items is $885.

MOTORIST CHARGED AFTER CAR HITS TRAFFIC LIGHTS

Mark E. Price, 25, of 1308 Grand Ave., Madison, was charged at 3:10 a.m. Oct. 23 with driving under the influence of alcohol and failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident. His auto jumped a median, struck a traffic control light at Illinois 162 and Maryville Road, continued across traffic lanes, and hit another control light, flattening both front tires of the car, authorities said.

DUI ALLEGED AFTER CAR BREAKS TRAFFIC SIGNAL

Daniel C. Jenkins, 36, of 1901 Third St., B. Madison, was charged at 4:29 a.m. Oct. 18 by Granite City police with driving under the influence of alcohol, leaving the scene of an accident and failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Jenkins was southbound on 20th Street, approaching Niedringhaus Avenue, when his auto jumped the curb and struck a traffic control signal, knocking it to the pavement, authorities said. His auto continued through the intersection and was later halted by a Madison County deputy.

Jenkins was released after posting $302 cash bail.

DRIVER CHARGED WITH DUI

James W. Matheny, 68, of 2215 Lincoln Ave., was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol after his auto collided with a parked car owned by Tammy Ambush, of 2650 E. 24th St., at 4:32 p.m. Oct. 18. He was released on $102 cash bail.

ALCOHOL, WEAPON CHARGES FILED AGAINST LOCAL MAN

Roy C. Wright, 46, of 3801 Lake Drive, Lot 320, Pontoon Beach, was charged Oct. 19 by Granite City authorities with driving under the influence and illegal transportation of alcohol and unlawful use of a weapon.

Officers stopped Cutright's auto at St. Clair and Myrtle avenues and allegedly found four .22 caliber shells, a revolver and a bottle of beer. While Cutright was being booked, officers said, they found another live shell. He was released after posting $204 bail.

BURGLAR TAKES 2 TV SETS

Melva Hopkins, 2161 Monroe Ave., said Oct. 22 a burglar entered her home and took two television sets valued at a total of $560.

BEER POSSESSION CHARGED

Timothy D. Flynn, 19, of 105 Wilson Park Lane, John W. Ursey, 18, of 2210 Missouri Ave., and a 15-year-old Granite City boy were charged Oct. 22 with being minors in possession of beer in Ursey's auto in the 1900 block of Adams Street. Flynn and the boy were released after posting $52 cash bail each. Ursey, also charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was released on $154 bail.

MAN BREAKS CAR WINDOW

Marileste Restoff of Belleville told Granite City police Oct. 22 a man used a tire tool to break a window on her car, parked at 3675 Nameoki Road. Damage totaled $400.

TAPES, SPEAKERS TAKEN

Rob Brown, 118 Wilson Park Lane, said Oct. 22 a burglar took 30 cassette tapes and two speakers from his auto, parked at 2254 Washington Ave. Value of the items is $230.

MAN HIT, DOOR DAMAGED

Darrell Jones of 3109 Kirkpatrick Homes heard two men knocking on his front door at 1:15 a.m. Oct. 23, and tried to keep them out of the apartment. But they gained entry, damaging a door screen. When Jones struggled with the men in an attempt to force them out, he was struck with an object on the right elbow and arm and in the face by one of the men's fists.

HURT ON MADISON AVENUE

Rosie L. Zimmer, 60, of 3172 Yale Ave., was injured at 10:40 a.m. Oct. 21 when an auto, driven by Edward Coleman of 1034 Logan Ave., Venice, struck the rear of her car on Madison Avenue near railroad tracks. Zimmer was stopped for a crosswalk light at the time of the mishap.

TWO INSIDE CAR, WOMAN OUTSIDE ARE INJURED

Melvin E. Tretter, 58, and Shirley Tretter, 52, both of 2104 Manley Ave., and Connie J. Crumley, 56, of 2201 Lynch Ave., were injured in an auto mishap at 11:21 p.m. Oct. 17.

A car, driven by David L. Harris, 18, of 2518 Ivy Lane, was turning on 23rd Street from Lynch when it collided with the Tretter auto.

The impact of the crash caused the Tretter auto to strike Crumley, who was standing next to it, and threw her approximately 20 feet away from the auto.

Crumley and Mrs. Tretter were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center following the mishap. Harris was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

TWO DRIVERS INJURED IN EAST 23RD STREET CRASH

Sammy J. Shafer, 25, of 2915 Edwardsville Road, and Larry F. Linger, 44, of Collinsville, both eastbound on Illinois 162, sustained injuries in an accident at 11:50 p.m. Oct. 17.

Shafer's auto, stopped at a traffic light at East 23rd Street, was struck from the rear by Linger's vehicle, reports said.

CONDUCT CHARGE FILED

Tim P. Cox, 20, of 2124 Dewey Ave., was charged with disorderly conduct at 11:45 p.m. Oct. 17 after he was approached by an officer in the 2200 block of Madison Avenue and allegedly ran into the roadway.

A hazardous traffic situation resulted when passing motorists were forced to apply brakes to avoid Cox, the officer said.

ASSAULT STRIKES MAN

Floyd Kilmer, 2837 Myrtle Ave., was driving in the 2900 block of Myrtle at 3:40 p.m. Oct. 17 when a man, with whom he had problems earlier, waved down his auto. Kilmer got out of his car and the man struck him in the left eye with his fist, the victim said.

YOUR STARS

By Stella Wilder

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 7 - Do not allow others to take control this week where control should be yours and yours alone. Stand up for yourself! Nov. 8-Nov. 21 - Decisions must be made quickly, firmly this week if you expect to progress according to plan.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 7 - Though conditions may be less than conducive to financial gain, your profits increase day by day. Dec. 8-Dec. 21 - Continue pressing for the truth this week. What comes to light by week's end makes all the difference.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 6 - It is essential that you know all the ins and outs of the matters in which you are engaged this week.

JAN. 7-Jan. 19 - Take no chances this week; act only on firm knowledge. Leave speculation to the experts - and the foolhardy.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 3 - Do not be slowed by criticism this week. Momentum is the key to current progress - and eventual success. Feb. 4-Feb. 18 - Though you may find yourself moving against the prevailing current this week, some progress is assured.

PISCES Feb. 19-March 5 - Study the tactics of opponents early in the week - and use them to your advantage toward week's end.

MARCH 6-March 20 - Do not expect to achieve much by way of force.

For you, tact, diplomacy - and patience - pay off this week.

ARIES March 21-April 4 - Though you may have to face some slow going early on, the week builds to a frenzy of activity. Hang on! April 5-April 19 - Good intentions are not enough this week. Get out there and get the job done! Don't hold back this week.

TAURUS April 20-May 5 - Though illness may hold you back early in the week, a full recovery has you coming on strong by week's end. May 6-May 20 - Capital gains are assured this week - if you are sure to wait out a period of bad luck early on. Be patient.

GEMINI May 21-June 6 - What happens abroad is of little importance compared to the goings-on at home. You are needed there this week. June 7-June 20 - Habits figure prominently this week - both good and bad. Change may be in order.

CANCER June 21-July 7 - Do not jump at the first offers you receive this week. A cautious approach is advised for best results. July 8-July 22 - You cannot afford to pass up any opportunity this week. Explore all that comes your way - with a friend.

LEO July 23-Aug. 7 - Time is on your side this week. A failure early on can be turned into a stunning success by week's end.

Think! Aug. 8-Aug. 22 - Will power and determination are necessary this week for you to keep going along present course.

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 7 - The young express desires only you can fulfill this week. Be willing to make the necessary sacrifice.

SEPT. 8-Sept. 22 - Though the week may seem uneventful, a great deal goes on beneath the surface. Keep eyes and ears open.

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 7 - Harmony at home promotes good work on the job. Superiors note improvement throughout the week. Oct. 8-Oct. 22 - Capitalize on an unexpected bit of luck early in the week and come out on top by week's end. Prove yourself now!

Carter

Willard L. Carter, 64, of 732 Ashland Ave., a 40-year resident of Granite City, died at 8:05 a.m. Friday, Oct. 24, 1986, at Christian North Hospital, St. Louis. He was hospitalized for five days.

Born in Granite City, Mr. Carter also lived in Florissant, Mo., for several years.

He worked as an engineer for three years at Sandulor Corp., St. Louis. Mr. Carter was a member of the First Baptist Church in Ferguson and was a former member of Amvets Post 51, Granite City.

He and his wife, the former Genevieve March, who survives, were married Nov. 8, 1947, in Granite City.

Other survivors include one son, Larry L. Carter, St. Louis; a daughter, Mrs. Diana Flowers, Granite City; a sister, Mrs. Bonita Peterson, Granite City; his mother, Mrs. Mina Carter, Edwardsville; and three grandchildren.

Visitation will begin at 1 p.m. today (Sunday) at Thomas Memorial Mortuary, 2205 Pontoon Road, where Dr. Dennis Newkirk will conduct 10 a.m. services Monday. Burial will be at Roselawn Cemetery, Bethalto.

Memorials may be given to the American Heart Association.

Christoff

Christ K. Christoff, 90, a retired railroad employee, died at 1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 23, 1986, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. He was a patient there for two days and had resided for the past year at The Colonades nursing home.

Born in Macedonia, Mr. Christoff lived in the Quad-City Area since 1910. He worked for the Nickel Plate Railroad for many years and retired in 1959.

He was a member of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Orthodox Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary (Humenik) Christoff, in 1951 and by a brother and a sister.

Survivors include two sons, George and Nick Christoff, both of Granite City; three daughters, Mrs. Sterling (Stella) Hoge, Mrs. Edward (Sophia) Clemons and Mrs. Harry (Dorothy) Parker, all of Granite City; a brother, Theodore Kolos of Dearborn, Mich.; a sister in Greece; 15 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Thomas Succarotte officiated at 10 a.m. services Saturday at Irwin Chapel for Funerals, 2801 Madison Ave. Burial was at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville. Memorials may be given to the church.

Evans

Stella Lois (Reed) Evans, 75, of St. Petersburg, Fla., formerly of Granite City, died at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 23, 1986, at St. Anthony's Hospital in St. Petersburg.

Born in Flat River, Mo., she lived in this area for many years before moving to Florida 15 years ago.

She was of the Protestant faith.

Survivors include her husband, John Evans; one son, William Evans, St. Petersburg; three daughters, Mrs. William (Mary Jane) Brannan and Mrs. Herbert (Shirley) Grammer, both of Granite City, and Mrs. Frank (Brenda) Garner, St. Peters, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Richards and Mrs. Marie Portell, and a brother, Eugene Doggett, all of Flat River; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Visitation will begin at 6 p.m. Sunday at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave., where 11 a.m. services will be conducted on Monday. Burial will be in St. John Cemetery, 301 Namock Road.

Knollman

Mrs. Emma A. (Schutte) Knollman, 84, of 2603 Center St., died at 2:42 p.m. Friday, Oct. 24, 1986, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where she was admitted the same day.

Born Jan. 21, 1902, in Quincy, Ill., Knollman resided here the past 12 years. Previously, she lived in St. Louis.

She was a member of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church.

Her husband, Maurice, died Nov. 13, 1962.

Among the survivors are a son, David Knollman, president of First Granite City Savings and Loan; a daughter, Mrs. Lela Ballance of Clayton, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Helen Durand of Quincy, Calif.; and four grandchildren.

Visitation is from 4 to 8 p.m. Sunday at Irwin Chapel for Funerals, 2801 Madison Ave., where prayers will be recited at 7 p.m. Sunday. Mass will be said by the Rev. Donald Meehling at 11 a.m. Monday at St. Margaret Mary Church, 1900 St. Clair Ave. Burial will be at Calvary Cemetery, St. Louis.

Lewis

Harry T. Lewis, 84, of Fairview Heights, died at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 22, 1986, at Memorial Hospital, Belleville.

He was born in Muncie, Ind., and lived in Granite City for many years. He was employed at National Enameling and Stamping Co. until he retired.

Mr. Lewis was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of New Port Ritzville, Fla.

He was preceded in death by one son, Harry "Mac" Lewis.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Irene Sharpe of Oakmont, Pa.; two daughters-in-law, Margaret Lewis of Caseyville and Bonnie Lewis of Fairview Heights; one grandson, three step-grandchildren and eight step-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at Korus Funeral Home, Belleville, with burial at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville.

Reuss

Mrs. Catherine (Williams) Watson Reuss, 88, a former longtime resident of Granite City, died at 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 24, 1986, at the Eunice Smith Nursing Home in Alton.

Mrs. Reuss resided at the nursing home for the past 12 years after living most of her life in Granite City.

She was born in Great Britain at Ammanford, Wales, and came to this country when a young child.

Mrs. Reuss was a teacher for many years at the former Central Junior School prior to retiring.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Bay View Reading Club and Traveler's Abroad.

Mrs. Reuss' husband, Dr. H. P. Reuss, died in 1954. Her first husband, Dr. Charles Watson, died in 1947. She was preceded in death by a brother, Oswald Williams.

Among the survivors are four nephews, James Williams of Carlsbad, Calif., Robert Williams of Santa Ana, Calif., Gilbert Watson of Collinsville and Dr. K. Vernon Johnson of Long Beach, Calif.; and a step-grandson, Gary Huxel of Terre Haute, Ind.

Visitation begins at 6 p.m. Sunday at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave., where the Rev. Richard Hunt will conduct services at 1 p.m. Monday. Burial will be at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville.

Shelton

Truman P. Shelton, 76, of 2540 Adams St., died at 4:26 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 23, 1986, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

A 56-year resident of this area, he was born in Dixon, Mo. Mr. Shelton worked at A.O. Smith Corp. for 21 years as a machine operator and retired 11 years ago.

He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife, Dolly Shelton; one son, Robert Shelton of Eldon, Mo.; two daughters, Donna Fitzhugh, Granite City, and Nancy Whitman, Pueblo, Colo.; two brothers, Ray Shelton, Granite City, and Otis Shelton, Minneapolis, Minn.; one sister, Lorene Livingston of Highland; 11 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Gail Thornton officiated at 1 p.m. services Saturday at Irwin Chapel for Funerals, 2801 Madison Ave., where burial will be at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville.

Smothers

Mrs. Beulah C. (Garland) Smothers, 79, formerly of 1634 Fifth St., Madison, died at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 24, 1986, at the Meadows View Care Center in Maryville. She resided at the care center for the past six years.

Born June 12, 1907, in Ravenden Springs, Ark., Mrs. Smothers lived at the Madison address from 1922 until 1980.

She was a member of the Church of Christ in Granite City.

Her husband, Roy Smothers, died in 1976.

Among the survivors are a son, Larry Smothers of Granite City; three daughters, Mrs. Sexton (Catherine) Daugherty and Mrs. Billie Clifton, both of Granite City, and Miss Virginia Smothers of California; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Visitation is from 6 to 9 p.m. Sunday at Irwin Chapel for Funerals, 2801 Madison Ave. Other arrangements are pending. Friends may call 877-6500 for details.

Price: No campaign plans

The threat from a younger Republican in the November election seemed a lifetime away, yet ironically focused on the small cluster of friends waiting in the mid-morning sun on the courthouse steps in Edwardsville Oct. 11.

Officially, the people came to witness a presentation of the first Congressional Awards for community service by youths in the 21st District in Illinois. But secretly, more than one came to see the man who held the seat longer than any of them could remember.

Rep. Mel Price, D-Belleville (recently moved from East St. Louis), who lost the chairmanship of the powerful House Education Committee last year and is increasingly seen as too old to serve after 40 years in the House, did not disappoint them.

The thinning man in the blue suit walked painfully slowly and with a cane to overcome arthritis and never attempted the courteous steps, but he commanded a certain respect if not allegiance.

His blue eyes are clear and the grin is still there, but the pace is slower and the voice noticeably softer.

"You are the very first" to receive this award, Price told a beaming Lisa Krapf, 19, of Edwardsville, who accepted a silver medal and certificate for more than 200 hours of voluntary public service.

The award, which each congressman must agree to sponsor in his district, recognizes personal achievement and the community service of young people, said Wayne Ault, chairman of the awards committee.

Trap served on the youth committee of Edwardsville Township and totaled 100 hours in additional personal development and physical fitness to become eligible. She is a student at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

"She is an honor to herself, her family and her community," Price said.

A second silver Congressional Award to Catherine King of Edwardsville, a sophomore at the University of Kentucky, was accepted by her mother, Jean King.

King is a student of sociology and political science in Lexington, but totaled 200 hours of volunteer service working in youth and senior citizen programs sponsored by Edwardsville Township.

"The awards are a good program and a good way to encourage participation," said Ault, a political science teacher at Belleville Area College who taught Price's college aide, Mike Mansfield.

"The Price is Right," Mansfield said, doffing a baseball cap with the slogan he prefers for the campaign.

The congressman, who came hatless with only a golden pin in his lapel touting his candidacy, said he is not worried about November.

"I have no problem with my health, except for the infection in my knee. The only reason for the cane is in case of standing too long."

Price retreated to the front seat of a car waiting to take him to the airport for the trip back to Washington, but delayed the start to hold court with questioners and a former employee.

With several offices in the district, he said he is always in contact with the people. He has no immediate plans for personal campaigning locally.

"Congress is always in session. That's why it is difficult to get back," he said.

Library newspaper available

The fall issue of Openers, called "America's Library Newspaper," is now available free at the Granite City Public Library.

It is published quarterly by the American Library Association and reports on books, records, tapes, television programs, movies and other topics.

The fall issue features an article about older Americans, "Life Begins at 60." With the article is a list of recommended books on the subject of growing older.

The issue also takes a look at new fiction and nonfiction of note; children's author Jean Fritz; the ideas and work of T. Berry Brazelton, pediatrician, author and host of the cable television show What Every Baby Knows; gardeningships and books, and books that parents can read with their children.

A column reviews current releases from the worlds of jazz, rock, classical, and country music. The publication is made available locally by the Friends of the Library, an organization that works to support and promote the Granite City Public Library. Copies may be picked up at either the main library, 2001 Delmar Ave., or the branch library, 2020 Johnson Road.

Squad needs help

pired, a three-day extension was granted. On the final day, May 8, Jack G. Bruce, 42, of Old Alton Road, was charged with murder, home invasion, armed violence and attempted murder.

ASSIGNED to the Hoffmans' murder case were Major Case Squad members from the Granite City police force, Madison and St. Clair counties' sheriff's departments, Illinois Division of Criminal Investigation and Madison, Fairview Heights, Wood River, Alton, East Alton and SIUE police departments.

The Major Case Squad now consists of 251 commissioned officers from communities in Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties; St. Louis; St. Louis County and its municipalities; and Franklin, Jefferson and St. Charles counties in Missouri.

CHIEF HARRIS recently nominated seven officers from his department to the Major Case Squad board for membership. All were accepted and took two days of procedural training.

The Major Case Squad was established in 1964. In the intervening years, its members have been called in on the most difficult and sensational crimes in the metropolitan bi-state region.

Squad members have participated voluntarily without funding for the unit, without overtime pay, without a permanent office or vehicle, and with little equipment, surviving on donations of money and equipment from some area businesses, officials said.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, the squad is "going public" in trying to raise money, Harris said. Communication is crucial to the squad's tasks and about $45,000 would go for a radio network to be based in the squad's van. The van was donated last year, along with a used station wagon.

THE REMAINDER of the donated funds will be used to buy more investigative and emergency equipment, including a computer to provide a link with a regional law enforcement system, officials said. All donors will be enrolled in a civic group known as Friends of the Police, according to Joe Simpkins, a St. Louis businessman and general chairman of the drive.

"Every contribution will be personally acknowledged by Col. Robert Lowery of the Major Case Squad and by me," Simpkins said.

Election '86

Veteran lawmen in race for sheriff

Two veteran lawmen are seeking the office of Madison County sheriff and both remain confident in their ability to get voter approval in the Nov. 4 election.

Bob Churchich, a 22-year veteran in law enforcement and police chief of Hartford, is the Democratic candidate.

Thomas E. Voloski, a former Madison police officer for 15 years, is the Republican candidate on the Nov. 4 ticket.

Churchich, 58, was successful over four other Democratic candidates in the March 18 primary election, including a strong bid by Granite City Police Lt. Col. Bob Astorian.

Voloski, 45, owner and operator of Voloski's Catering and Family Restaurant in Madison, was unopposed in the primary.

Both candidates cite their credentials in law enforcement as key factors in their campaigns.

Bob Churchich

Churchich

Bob Churchich, Hartford police chief for six years, formerly was an Alton police officer for 22 years, including 13 years as a shift commander. He and other officers established the department's detective division in the 1960s.

"I want to assure citizens of Madison County the continued operation of the sheriff's department in a professional manner, free from undue political pressure within the department, and the continued upgrading of the department through education and recruitment," Churchich said.

"PROBABLY THE MAIN issue is who can best guide the sheriff's department in the department's best interest and operate at the peak of efficiency for the best interest of the citizens and taxpayers of Madison County," the Democratic nominee said.

"This can only be done by someone who has had the experience in command and executive levels within a law enforcement agency."

"I feel that my experience will help me to best serve the citizens and to direct the various agencies within the sheriff's department," Churchich said.

Churchich graduated from the University of Illinois Police Training Institute and Illinois State Police Academy in Springfield. He has attended numerous police in-service seminars and holds many hours of college credits in police science from Lewis and Clark College.

THE DEMOCRATIC contender presently serves on the Illinois Law Enforcement Training Board and on the Illinois Law Enforcement Advisory Board.

He has advanced through the ranks to his present position and has served in every aspect of police work, keeping up also with changing laws and court procedures, he said.

Replying in detail to questions submitted to the candidates by the Press-Record/Journal, Churchich said:

"The sheriff's office should always be available for public input and the information should be available to the public. We would comply with the Freedom of Information Act in all respects, unless directed to do otherwise by the state's attorney or a court of law."

"MY SHERIFF'S office will only hire on the basis of merit and we will follow the tradition established in hiring and in promotion based upon merit, integrity and dedication to duty. Petty patronage politics has no place in a department dedicated to justice and the administration of justice."

"My plans are to emphasize investigation and to assist local departments in major case investigations, continue efforts to expand patrols in suburban areas, re-establish the Process Division and start an arson squad to assist volunteer fire departments."

CHURCHICH plans to have more men on patrol and to increase the efficiency of the patrol units.

He also intends to have an unbiased engineering firm assess and evaluate problems with the jail and report to the Madison County Board.

"Whether a person should be allowed to hold more than one elective office is a question to be answered by the voting public. As sheriff, I do not intend to hold any more than the one office," Churchich said.

The Democratic candidate is currently a member of the County Board. He and his wife, Jeanie, are the parents of two married daughters, Carolyn Fahnestock and Deborah Koch. The family resides in Alton.

Thomas Voloski

Voloski

Thomas Voloski's 15 years as a Madison police officer included five years as a detective. He also worked five years as a member of the Major Case Squad of the Greater St. Louis Area.

"I am extremely qualified and capable and have a sincere desire to be the best sheriff Madison County will ever have. I feel that my age, stamina and endurance, combined with my professional training, 15 years as a police officer and five years as a volunteer fireman, provide me with the necessary qualifications," Voloski said.

THE GOP NOMINEE has an associate degree in law enforcement and credit hours toward a degree in human services from SIUE.

He attended the Police Training Institute at the University of Illinois at Champaign and the Criminal Investigation School at Illinois University at Lisle.

Voloski cites his experience in investigating all major crimes as defined by the FBI.

"I have gathered, preserved and presented evidence in open court to convict and place persons in the penitentiary."

"I have been a member of the Greater Metro St. Louis Major Case Squad, for five years, and participated in its training seminars.

"DURING THIS TIME, I was able to start Voloski-Catering while still maintaining my police duties, family life and hobbies."

"My hobbies are weightlifting, music and photography," the Republican candidate said.

Voloski resigned from the Madison Police Department last year to devote more time to his family's restaurant and catering business and to enter the sheriff's race.

RESPONDING to questions asked by the Press-Record/Journal, Voloski said:

"He would release information to the press on felony charges and let the public know what is going on in the sheriff's department."

Patronage would not play a role in his administration. He noted that, due to the merit system and unionization, patronage is no longer a major part of the present day sheriff's department.

Voloski has reorganization plans. "But I do not intend to reorganize in a week or two." Earlier, he said that he intended to increase the patrol duties of the sheriff's department to make the department more visible.

Replying to a question of whether present manpower levels would be increased or reallocated in the Quad-City Area, Voloski said, "I will not give a direct answer to this question, as it will be a part of my reorganization plan."

"I do intend to get the most from the present and future sheriff's department."

HE PROVIDED no response to a question regarding upgrading the jail, which the incumbent sheriff has said is in a state of disrepair.

To a question relating to a person holding more than one elected office, Voloski said, "In some instances a person has no alternative. If no other alternatives are available, I see nothing wrong with holding more than one elected office."

Voloski, who has never held elective office, resides at 1605 Sixth St., Madison.

He and his wife, Dorothy, are the parents of four children, Sharon and Karen, 21, Thomas, 18, and Gregory, 12.

Candidate assails land trust

"A secret land trust is reaping a profit bonanza in its deal with the Illinois attorney general for the lease of a downtown Chicago office building," Bernard Carey, the Republican candidate for attorney general, charged in a news conference at his headquarters.

"Real estate sources say the secret land trust that Neil Hartigan is doing business with is charging the state five times what it paid for the leasehold on the property at 174 West Randolph," said Carey.

"Why did Hartigan not do business with China Books and Periodicals Inc. after he saw a 'For Rent' sign in the window of the property, instead of waiting to deal with the secret land trust? The property had been available for sublease for almost one year when the land trust was formed. The May 1984 deal with the land trust apparently cost Illinois taxpayers an extra $1 million over the five-year term of the lease agreement."

The lease that Carey says is illegal is costing $206,000 per year and includes more than $300,000 worth of remodeling costs.

"State Sen. John D'Arco Jr. of Chicago, one of Hartigan's Democratic friends, is receiving financial benefit from the trust, also in violation of state law. The attorney general has failed to explain why the deal continues to exist when it is clear an illegal agreement can be voided," Carey said.

"The property was controlled by China Books and Periodicals in 1983 when it was listed with Price Associates Inc. of Chicago for sublease. In June 1983 a land trust was set up at LaSalle National Bank to hold a sublease by three beneficiaries who indicated in writing to the bank they did not want details of the agreement made public."

"The pattern continued into 1984 when the property was leased to the state for use by the attorney general, without him making the required disclosure of beneficiaries."

"Formal disclosure to the state comptroller, required of other state officers doing business with secret trusts, has not been made to this date."

Republican Carey urged that the attorney general void the lease and seek a refund of tax money paid to the trust.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard (Ruth Ann) Weeks and Mr. and Mrs. Mel (Mary) Haven returned from Las Vegas, Nev. The two couples spent a week vacationing, attending the area's shows and visiting points of interest.

Norman Richter Jr. celebrated his 10th birthday Oct. 19. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Richter, 2205 Miracle Ave., hosted a party and served a birthday cake decorated in a wrestling theme.

Present were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim (Jerr) Schieb, Gilbert Richter and Barbara Fulmer.

Others attending were Mrs. Kathy Nigels and children, Chris and Amy, Mr. and Mrs. Mike (Phyllis) Geske and children, Mike Jr., Stephen, Karen and Tanya, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan (Barbara) Vallo and son, Eric. He received a phone call from an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John (Karen) Orr, El Centro, Calif.

Mrs. Bobbie Shuppert, 658 Chouteau Ave., is home recuperating after surgery performed at St. Elizabeth Medical Center last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee (Velma) Presley, 612 Barkley Ave., were host to their daughter and family recently.

Visiting here were Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Sue) Battreal, Jacksonville, Fla., and their daughters Mrs. Virginia Edgerly, Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Laura Rohere and daughter, Amy, of Roanoke, Va.

They first went to Potosi, Mo., to attend the funeral of Mr. Battreal's mother, Mrs. Bernice Battreal, a Chain of Rocks Road resident before moving back to Potosi several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Presley motored to Potosi for the services and the Battreals returned with them.

The Chouteau Township Senior Citizens Quilting Club met at the township social center for its regular quilting session. During the noon break, two members were honored with a birthday cake baked by Mrs. Barbara Fulmer.

John Rosner's birthday was Oct. 13 and Francis Moeble's was Oct. 15. Others who shared in the celebration and the quilting were Sally Segger, Mary Tolka, Emily Jones, Edith Rogaschnik, Fern Corey, Pearl Turner, Fern Feiselmann and Daisy Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Duniphan, 633 Chouteau Ave., motored to Wappello, Mo., to attend a benefit "pie and box supper" at the Wappello Civic Center.

The benefit was sponsored by a group of musicians from Cold Water, Mo., who provided music for dancing and for cake walks. The pies and boxes were auctioned to the highest bidders. All proceeds are to go to help pay the hospital bill of Gary Carver. He was seriously injured in an automobile accident on Labor Day weekend. The left side of his body was crushed by a pickup truck when it rolled over him. Carver is the nephew of Mrs. Duniphan.

Mrs. Geneva Gibson, 520 Chouteau Ave., died Sunday morning from a heart attack suffered in her home. She had lived in the Mitchell area since 1935. She married Joseph C. Gibson Jan. 16, 1940; he survives.

Relatives here from out-of-town were a brother, Tom Compton and wife, Maxine, of Holiday Shores, and their son-in-law and daughter, Kevin and Judy of Marine; a niece, Mary Earney and her husband, Tim, and son, Patrick, and daughter, Annie, of Gray Summit, Mo.; and Mr. and Mrs. Allen (Karen) Werner and sons, Allen and Jason, of Kokona.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott (Sheila) Smith, Chain of Rocks Road, held a birthday party in their home for their son, Timmy, who is now two years old. The party decorations and cake carried out a Sesame Street theme. Among his many gifts was a huge "Big Bird" and his favorite hero, Hulk Hogan.

Present for the celebration were his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford (Levia) Braman and daughter, Darlene Ortiz, and her son, Michael.

Out-of-town guests were paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Curran, St. Peters, Mo., and son, Kevin Smith, Florissant, and Mark Hinney, Edwardsville, and his family, Deann Rice of Collinsville.

Mrs. Levin Braman, 656 Margaret Ave., Mitchell, was surprised by a telephone call from her sister, Mrs. Bonnie Mitchell, Chicago. They had not met since 1951.

The family had last touch with her and she was presumed dead. It was later discovered that she had remarried and changed her name.

Mrs. Mitchell, now 64, decided some time ago to try to locate some of her family members. Not knowing where anyone lived, she wrote a letter and sent it general delivery, addressed to her brother in a little town in Arkansas where the family once lived.

He received the letter and, through his brother, she has been reunited with many of her relatives including Mrs. Braman. Besides a lengthy phone call, Mrs. Braman has received two letters from her sister, who is making plans to come here as soon as possible.

John DeCota, Mrs. Lorraine Stagner and Lorraine's children, Kenneth Stagner and Laura Evans, flew to Las Vegas, Nev. They stayed at the Imperial Palace Hotel and spent a week enjoying the sights.

Mrs. Stagner celebrated her birthday Oct. 12. She received a birthday card from her grandson, Steven W. Stagner and family, that also announced he has been chosen "male nurse of the year." Stagner is a nurse with the Air Force, stationed at McDill Air Base in Florida. He will arrive home on a two-week leave this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip (Helen) Hickman, 628 E. Chain of Rocks Road, has just returned from a trip to Tupelo, Ark., where they visited former area residents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny (Betty) Runyon.

On the return trip they visited Silver Dollar City in the Missouri Ozarks.

Seven-year-old Mandy Meyer, a member of a Faith Chapel Sunday School class, sustained a skull fracture and cuts and bruises to the face over the weekend. She was with a group of youngsters and their chaperones on a hayride when their wagon was struck by a car. Several persons were injured. Mandy was taken to Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, and is expected to be released late this week.

Granite City youngster blooms as international opera starlet

Erie Mills didn't know she would become an important operatic soprano while performing in high school shows, community theater and at the opera.

But the talented, friendly little girl from Granite City has grown up and gone on to sing in some of the best opera houses in the world, including the San Francisco Opera and La Scala in Milan and Hamburg State Opera.

Erie Mills

"I aspired to become a professional singer, but I had no idea I was going to become involved in opera until college," said Mills. She was in St. Louis Oct. 24 for "Stars Over St. Louis," a gala that climaxed the St. Louis arts festival.

Recently Mills appeared with the New York City Opera. The production of Leonard Bernstein's "Candide" will be broadcast on PBS on Live From Lincoln Center Nov. 12.

Next September, Mills will make her Vienna debut in "Ariadne auf Naxos."

Mills said her mother encouraged her to take dance lessons, attend theatrical performances and concerts. She was constantly busy singing in church, performing in Collinsville's Masquers community theater and helping the Veiled Prophet ball. That's a long aisle for a little kid."

Mills left home to attend College of Wooster in Ohio and later the University of Illinois. She returned to St. Louis to sing with Opera Theatre from 1978 to 1980.

Richard Gaddies, who was general director of Opera Theatre at the time, remembers Mills.

"Here was a major star in the making," he said. "She is a lyric coloratura, someone who sings acrobatics. It's floral, decorative singing. They're a rare breed."

In the early 1980s, Mills appeared with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra under the direction of music director and conductor Leonard Slatkin.

Now, when Mills isn't traveling, (eight months out of the year), she lives in northern California with her husband. Her advice to aspiring young performers includes finding the right teacher and appearing on stage as much as possible.

As far as the future, Mills wants to sing better, work with better conductors and perform in bigger houses. The immediate future holds a different goal.

"I'm looking forward to going home and being a wife for a while," she said.

Tips for trick-or-treaters for safety

To help avoid Halloween tragedies, Dr. Bernard J. Turnock, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, has issued some "dos" and "don'ts" to protect trick-or-treaters.

He said costumes, whether bought or home-made, should be fire resistant. Parents should look for "flameproof" or "flame resistant" labels when purchasing costumes, masks, hoods or wigs.

Costumes also should be short enough that children won't trip on them, and bright enough to be clearly visible on dimly lighted streets. Children should carry flashlights or have reflective tape sewn on their costumes.

Masks and other disguises should not restrict vision or breathing. "The safest mask is a natural one made of cosmetics or charcoal applied directly to the skin," Dr. Turnock said.

He warned against placing candle-lit jack-o-lanterns on doorsteps or other areas where children may brush against them. "For their safety, children should not carry candles, even inside a pumpkin," he said.

A responsible older person should accompany young trick-or-treaters and keep them constantly in sight, he added.

Children should be cautioned against running across lawns or backyards where they might trip or fall in the darkness. They should also be warned against dashing into the streets from between parked cars.

Youngsters should be instructed not to eat the treats they collect until the candy, apples and other items have been carefully examined by an adult. Wrappers of pre-packaged treats should be checked for signs of tampering.

Apples and other fresh fruits should be sliced before being eaten. "Slicing the fruit will reveal any hidden objects such as razor blades," Dr. Turnock said.

He said that, under Illinois law, "a person who knowingly gives to another person any food that contains any substance or object that is intended to cause physical injury if eaten, commits aggravated battery."

Aggravated battery is a Class III felony punishable by up to five years imprisonment.

Children should visit only those homes where the residents are known to the parents.

Dr. Turnock said, "More and more parents are discouraging the traditional door-to-door trick-or-treating and taking their children to supervised community or neighborhood Halloween parties."

Halloween finery will include big costume variety

More than 50 percent of young people and adults aged 15-34 will attend Halloween parties or activities this year. Although they might not be reciting the favored chant of children, "Trick or treat, give me something good to eat," they want innovative costumes, studies have shown.

"Each year, adults become more creative in their Halloween costumes," said John Spinoli, toy buyer for K mart.

Make-up, masks and wigs will be popular for adults and older children this Halloween, with rubber masks and light-up ghouls faces expected to create quite a scare. Spinoli expects that make-up will be 22 percent of the K mart Halloween sales. Adults can also anticipate seeing their friends appear in Ninja, Rambo and nun costumes on Oct. 31.

Traditional characters such as Super Heroes, Masters of the Universe and Sesame Street are likely to be favorites with children this year.

"We expect Pound Puppies and characters from Adventures in Toyland to be hot items for younger children," said Spinoli.

Children are also using more make-up and accessories, he noted. Using hypoallergenic make-up, creativity and imagination children can become werewolves, soldiers or witches for the night.

"We have rotten teeth, fake skin, character noses and claw nails guaranteed to allow children to create safe, scary special effects," said Spinoli.

For added safety, a pumpkin flashlight can be used. Priced at $1.22, it is a blinking, battery-operated light.

Children's costumes are available for under $5 and adult costumes range from $12.97 to $19.97. K mart posted 1985 sales of $2.4 billion and employs over 300,000 people worldwide.

With more and more new chains moving into our area, we at CURT'S would like to remind you of what a smaller, independent restaurant can do different and better.

QUALITY AND FRESHNESS: For instance, our hamburger is locally supplied, fresh ground every morning, delivered to us six days a week. Never a frozen patty or meat packed in nitrogen shipped in once a week as the chains have to do.

Our stock is always fresher because we buy daily, not every two weeks or monthly. Nothing stays around more than a couple of days.

LOCAL SUPPLIERS & BRAND NAMES: Our meat is cut or ground by Miller Meat in Madison. Our eggs are delivered fresh from Becker Brothers in Germantown, Illinois. Our bacon is always Wilson or Kretschmar. Our hams are Kretschmar or Ozark Pride. ALWAYS THE FRESHEST AND BEST INGREDIENTS WE CAN GET.

'Homecoming' exhibits range of jazz duet

Jazz veterans Eddie Harris and Ellis Marsalis exhibit an impressive range of duet settings in "Homecoming," their new release on Spindletop Records.

Harris' reputation as a reed player is well established among jazz aficionados, having had a career as a headliner on Atlantic Records during that label's jazz heyday in the 1960s. Marsalis, who is perhaps most famous for fathering a versatile trumpeter named Wynton, gives an indication of where his stellar progeny derived his inspiration.

"Homecoming" features seven cuts, half of which are ballads by the likes of Harold Arlen, Jimmy Van Heusen and Richard Rodgers. On "I Can See Clear Out of This World," a Harold Arlen tune, the pair shows an approach to the ballad that harkens back to the free jazz styles of Bill Evans and Stan Getz - bossa nova with an avant garde twist.

Another of the disc's ballads, "Have You Met Miss Jones?" by Rodgers and Lorenz Hart, finds Marsalis flourishing some inspired chromatic contortions on the melodic line on keyboards while Harris embellishes with soprano playing that is handsomely resonant throughout the entire range of the instrument.

Where this set truly shines, however, is in the original material the two veterans have composed. "Ethereal Moments, Parts 1 and 2" is the centerpiece of the record.

Free reflective tape for trick- or-treaters here

Central Hardware, 1 Crossroads Plaza, Granite City, will be giving away reflective tape to children on Halloween night, Oct. 31, from 5 p.m. until closing time.

"The brightly-colored reflective tape can help protect children while they are out trick-or-treating," said Alan Purvis, vice president, merchandising and sales promotions at Central Hardware, St. Louis.

"We want to keep Halloween fun while at the same time safe for our children, and be a good neighbor to their parents."

"Each Central Hardware store will have a special area set up where parents may bring their children to get the free reflective tape on Halloween night. Parents should apply the tape to high-profile areas: head, shoulders and back.

Central Hardware is a division of Interco and has 31 retail hardware stores in Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hozian

Hozian-Haynes

Carla Dawn Haynes and Terry Lee Hozian were married Sept. 20 at Calvary Pentecostal Assembly by the Rev. Harold Maynard.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dale Haynes and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph (Gloria) Homan, all of Granite City.

The maid of honor was Marilyn Ruth Haynes, a sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were Virginia Hanks, Diane Walker and Angela Mills.

The best man was Leroy

Schuchardt and the groomsmen were Frank Haynes, a brother of the bride, and Carl King and Robert Singleton.

The flower girl was Kari Camp and the ringbearer was Anthony Shane Haynes, a brother of the bride.

Ushers were Randy May and Jimmy Kimbro.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple is residing in Granite City.

Both the bride and groom attended Granite City High School.

Auxiliary plans 58th anniversary

At a meeting of Eagles Auxiliary 1126 at the Eagles Home, plans were formulated to celebrate the 58th anniversary of the auxiliary at the next meeting Oct. 23.

All past presidents will be honored and invitations have been mailed. The auxiliary decorating committee will be in charge of refreshments and decorating, the president said.

The meeting was opened by President Linda Clayton. Secretary Ruth Jorgenson read a letter from District 7 inviting all members to an Auxiliary district meeting in Jerseyville on Nov. 16 at 2 p.m.

An invitation was also received to the Eagles Auxiliary State Officers' Day on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 and 2 at Freeport.

Moline Auxiliary 1112 will host the Illinois Northern Zone Conference on Nov. 14-16.

Prizes for the evening were awarded to Virginia McCall and Dee Klesh. Cake and coffee were served by hostesses Ann Kenoska and Dee Klesh.

Legal secretary of year selected

Vivian Branch of Dansey was chosen as legal secretary of the year by the Madison County Legal Secretaries Association at its annual bosses' night banquet on Oct. 7.

She has been a legal secretary for over nine years and is employed by the firm of Wiseman, Shalkevitz, McGovern, Wahl, Flavin, Hest & Hale.

The award is made annually to a member on the basis of outstanding secretarial ability, plus service to civic, charitable and religious activities and the national, state and local legal secretary groups.

Timothy Lewis Largent, Edwardsville, and Tamara Sue Taylor, Granite City.

VFW and Auxiliary honor past leaders

The annual meeting of past presidents and past commanders of VFW Post 1306 was held at the post home last week.

A potluck dinner was served to 32 members and guests, followed by a business meeting.

The women elected officers for the next year, with Mary Kay Crokin named the next president and Cleo Schneke the secretary-treasurer.

President Shirley Brewner announced the post and auxiliary will hold a costume Halloween party Oct. 31. Fish fries are held every Friday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Orders were taken for pizzas to be made at the post home Nov. 15; more orders are being taken at 877-8764. Proceeds are to go to VFW National Homes children.

A guest was a past district president, Lois Huff of Collinsville.

A prayer was said for a deceased member, Steve Kovar.

Young Careerist registration open

Candidates for the Young Careerist program, sponsored by the Gateway Business and Professional Women's Organization, can still register with the chairman, Dorothy Elmore, at 797-1847, President Judy McCann said.

The event is designed to honor and recognize outstanding young career women. Entrants must be between the age of 21 and 30 and must be employed in or formerly employed in a business or profession, with at least one year of full-time work experience in her career area.

New candidates are asked to complete a biographical sheet, with a glossy black and white photo attached. Each will be asked to present a three-minute speech on "Education for Today and Tomorrow."

Those interested should be outstanding in their work or in community service, and be working, training or continuing her education in the area she will represent. She should support the goals and legislative platform of the National Federation of BPW Clubs Inc. and have an interview with a panel of three or more judges.

The Nameoeki United Methodist Women met on Oct. 13 at the church for their regular monthly meeting. Hostesses were Mary Bailey and Gladys Russell.

Luan Briner presented the program entitled, "Worldwide Mission."

President Helene Bischoff conducted the business meeting. Election of officers was held and those named for the year are: Helene Bischoff, re-elected as president; Dorothy Wallace, vice president; Gail Wyatt secretary and Luan Briner, treasurer.

Others elected were Dorothy Luckert, Christian personhood chairman, Lois Holsinger supportive community, Gladys Russell social involvement, Millie Clements, Christian global concern, Diane Baker program resources, Corrine Dawson membership, Mary Bailey, Lydia Circle chairman, Alma Cowan, NMB Circle chairwoman, and Alta Stewart, publicity and public relations.

The nominating committee consists of Diane Baker, Corrine Dawson and Phyllis Talley. Dorothy Ashford volunteered to assist Church Women United in a layette project.

During the meeting, final plans for the church's Autumn Bazaar were discussed.

Mrs. Bischoff announced that officers training will be held on Saturday, Nov. 15, at St. Matthew's Church in Belleville.

The closing prayer was offered by Millie Clements.

Mrs. Lois Daniel of Granite City has returned home from a three-week vacation on the West Coast. She visited her sister in California and then they both traveled down the coast by automobile to visit relatives in Arizona.

The Ladies Sodality of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church met Oct. 14 for its regular monthly meeting. The seventh grade mothers were hostesses for the evening and served doughnuts and hot chocolate as a Halloween season treat.

The group discussed several future events. Members were reminded that the annual baby shower for Catholic Charities will be held at the November meeting. New items and good used articles for babies and small children are requested. They will be collected and presented to Catholic Charities.

It was announced that the Ladies Sodality annual Christmas party will be held at Jerry's Cafeteria on Dec. 9 at 6:30 p.m. Reservations must be made by Dec. 5 through the parish office or by calling Bonnie Miller at 877-3454. Plans are also being made for a Golden Age dinner on Dec. 14.

The quilt of the month was awarded to Jackie Sims and a prize was won by Ruth Walk.

St. Margaret Mary's School Cafeteria will be magically transformed into a haunted house on Wednesday, Oct. 29, between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Admission for all will be 50 cents. The seventh and eighth grade classes of the school, under the direction of Mrs. Diane Prazma, a seventh grade teacher, will sponsor the event.

The haunted house will be open to the public for the price of admission.

The Icebreakers of the First Presbyterian Church at 22nd Street and Delmar Avenue celebrated autumn at a hayride.

Larry and Cathy Holder were the host couple for the evening of fun and fellowship.

Leisure members and guests attended the hayride and enjoyed a wiener roast later in the evening.

The Icebreakers meet on the second Friday of each month at the church.

The Italian-American Club of the Quad-Cities held its monthly meeting last week at Tony's Restaurant in Granite City. John Svezia, vice president of the organization, chaired the meeting. Fifteen members were present.

The monthly bingo, sponsored by the organization on the second Saturday of each month at the Venice American Legion Post hall, was discussed. The group also made final plans for a dinner and social evening for members and their guests on Oct. 31.

It was announced that a nominating committee will be selected at the November meeting, and will present a slate of candidates for 1987 officers at the December meeting.

The club's annual Christmas party for the children and grandchildren of members will be planned at the November session, the president said.

A sandwich buffet was served following the business meeting.

Awards presented to Pack 22 Cubs

The October Meeting for Pack 22 was held at Frohardt School. The pledge of allegiance was led by Den 6 and Committee Chairman Den 1. He opened the meeting and then called on Assistant Chairman Randy Affolter. New scouts were recognized and commended for being in full uniform.

Awards presented were: Bobcat badge, Bobby Ellis, Timmy Harris, Jeff Hayes, Michael Kasey, David Martin, Chris Moore and Zach Suhre of Den 1, Jason Crites and Jason Stroud of Den 3, Nicholas Severine and Chris Lang of Den 4, and Jaso Ferguson, Billy Ragan and Christopher Zimmer of Den 6.

Bear badges and gold arrow points went to Matthew Affolter, Den 3, and Kevin Lee, Den 4.

Silver arrow points were awarded to Matthew Affolter and Webelos badges to Ben Asbeck, John Dameron, Jimmy Miller, Mark Schuete, Jason Smith and Lou Smith of Den 2.

Forester badges were awarded to Ben Asbeck, John Dameron, Jimmy Miller, Mark Schuete, Jason Smith and Lou Smith, Den 2, and outdoorsman badges to Ben Asbeck, John Dameron, Jimmy Miller and Lou Smith, Den 2.

Ben Asbeck and Jason Smith earned showman badges and Lou Smith received the naturalist badge.

Service stars were awarded to Matthew Affolter, Dana Anderson, Shane Buckingham and Keith Simon of Den 3 and leaders Randy and Kim Affolter. Physical fitness awards were given to Bobby Ellis, Timmy Harris, Zach Suhre and David Martin, Den 1, and Matthew Affolter, Shane Buckingham and Dana Anderson, Den 3.

Family outing by Cubs of Mitchell

Cub Scout Pack 141 of Mitchell School held a family outing Oct. 18 at Horseshoe Lake. Several activities were held, enabling the boys to work toward their achievement awards.

The Cubs and their families participated in relay races, model airplane flying, puddle jumpers and a hike. A bonfire was built and hot dogs and marshmallows were roasted.

Halloween songs were sung and each scout made up a Halloween story. The day ended with reciting of the law of the pack.

World Community Day scheduled here Nov. 7

World Community Day on Friday, Nov. 7, will be an ecumenical workshop event sponsored by Church Women United, bringing together women of different Christian traditions to share a common commitment. Their goal: a world that is just and peaceful place for all humankind.

The 1986 service, entitled "Look to the Mountains," was written by women of CWU in New Hampshire. They represented a variety of denominations: American Baptist, Greek Orthodox, Roman Catholic, United Church of Christ and United Methodist.

They used as their inspiration the Great Stone Face, high in the White Mountains of their state, whose existence is being threatened by pollution and acid rain. They seek to focus attention on human desecration of the earth's environment.

World Community Day 1986 calls women to become involved and take action, individually and collectively, to stop chemical pollution of air, land and water.

In Granite City, World Community Day services will be held at St. Peter's United Church of Christ, 2101 Cleveland Blvd.

Local women participating include Doris Edwards, chairman, Central Christian; Elizabeth Briggs, leader, Niedringhaus Methodist; Dorothy Kenney, hostess, St. Peter's; Marion Pierson, CWU choir director, Nameoeki Presbyterian; Joan Roberts, speaker, St. Margaret Mary; Ola Jones, Bethel A.M.E.; Jane Kennerly, St. John United Church of Christ; Maxine Rutter, Salvation Army; Wanda Robett, Trinity Methodist; Lena Seitzer, Central Christian Church, Church Women United president; and Joan Mucho, dedication of the blanket offering.

CWU as a national ecumenical women's movement has a 46-year history of being a catalyst bringing Protestant, Roman Catholic and Orthodox women together into a Christian community of prayer, advocacy and service.

It represents a wide spectrum of religious tradition, race, age, economic status and ethnic background and functions through a national unit, 52 state units (including greater Washington, D.C. and Puerto Rico) and 1,800 local units throughout the U.S.

Offerings from World Community Day, a spokeswoman said, enable CWU to give tangible assistance to others, improve quality of life, support the empowerment of women, and advance human rights, justice and peace.

GC Jr. Service Club plans autumn projects

Granite City Junior Service Club held its monthly board meeting at Nameoeki United Methodist Church, followed by a regular monthly meeting for club members.

Debbie McMillian, president, presided and the Lord's Prayer was recited.

Melie Rosenberg was introduced as a guest for the evening. A report was given on Couples Night Out, held at the home of Linda Schermer, and secret pals from last year were announced.

Plans for a fall fashion show to be held Oct. 28 at St. Elizabeth School were discussed. Tickets are $5 and are available from any club member.

A salad luncheon will be served.

Canned goods for Thanksgiving baskets will be brought to the next club meeting, it was noted. Plans for the annual Breakfast With Santa to be held Dec. 6 at the Granite City Township Hall were discussed.

Members present were Elaine Rains, Jo Anne Wymire, Laura Rapoff, Betty Serich, Mary Jo Seibold, Ruth Klaus, Pat Murphy, Joyce Hellrich, Lynette Burnett, Sharon Reader, Donna Carl.

Donna Sprankle, Jo Ella Harris, Rene Tanase, Mary Holloway, Mary Ann Bright, Faith Holsinger, Arlene Wyatt, Nora Foster, Diane Moran and Gale McGovern.

District 9 briefs

Grant for learning objectives

District 9 has applied for a grant that would help the school system establish learning objectives and assessment systems. If the state Board of Education approves the grant, the district could receive up to $11,494.

The money would be used to develop curriculums in language arts, math and health. Work began last summer on these study areas. The state board is offering the grants in order to help Illinois school districts meet new state requirements in the subject areas.

Many gifts for District 9

The Warrior Booster Club has donated a large-capacity ice machine to the athletic training room at Granite City High School.

The Marshall grade school PTA donated a number of items to the school including five basketballs and five soccer balls to the sixth and fifth grades and special education classrooms; three large rubber balls to the kindergarten classes and the reading room; eight rubber balls for the first through fourth grades, and 31 jump ropes for the kindergarten through fourth grades.

The Band Parents Organization at the high school will donate a video camera, recorder, television and two window air conditioners to the high school.

The owner of the Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant in Granite City, Winco Foods Inc., will donate trick-or-treat bags for each elementary student in the district. The company also plans to donate drinking cups to the athletic department for before and after athletic events.

David Anderson, a former music student, has donated a cello to the high school band.

Computer software purchased

A "10-pack" package of AppleWorks computer software was purchased by the district for $998 from Tenco Educational Service Center.

The software was purchased through Chapter 1 federal funding. The district also purchased a math software package to be used in the Chapter 1 math program at Prather grade school.

Student trips planned

The band and chorus of Grigsby Jr. High will be participating in the Illinois Music Educators District Festival at SIU at Carbondale on Nov. 15. The district will pay for the trip.

The Guidance, Empathy, Peer Helper Program at Granite City High School is planning a trip to Camp Salateeka in Pinckneyville on Nov. 6, 7 and 8 to train students in peer helping skills. The trip will be financed through grants, club funds, student fees and fund-raisers. There will be 40 students and eight adults attending.

Two students will attend the National Youth Leadership Council conference in Washington, D.C. to be held Nov. 2-7. The trip will be funded through donations from the Optimists, Jaycees and Elks clubs.

40 years of school lunches

National School Lunch is celebrating its 40th birthday this year.

More than 835,000 children are eating nutritious lunch in school each day through the USDA's National School Lunch Program in Illinois. The program is the oldest and largest of the child nutrition programs operated by the Food and Nutrition Service of the Department of Agriculture.

The program was authorized by President Harry S. Truman in 1946 to safeguard the health and well-being of the nation's children and to encourage the domestic consumption of nutritious agricultural commodities and other food. Since then, schools both rural and urban throughout our country have served more than 115 billion lunches.

Nationally, participating public schools, private schools and residential child care centers receive $3.5 billion annually in cash and commodities from USDA to provide meals for 24 million children each day.

In return for the cash and commodity assistance, schools and child care centers must meet federal nutritional standards and must make available free or reduced-price lunches to children who qualify. Nationwide, about half of the lunches are served free or reduced-price.

Schools which prepare their own meals are eligible to receive more than 50 different commodities such as chicken, ground beef, turkey, canned fruits and vegetables, cheese, butter, dry milk, honey, rice and flour from the USDA.

Monroe Woods, Midwest regional administrator of the USDA Food and Nutrition Service which funds the program, reports that school food authorities received nearly $155 million in cash and commodities to operate 4,108 lunch programs in Illinois last year.

Lunch planners are getting more creative by offering hot, potato, and salad bars along with other tasty offerings.

"Many schools serve lunch more like fast-food restaurants today," said Woods, "but they keep it more nutritious by cutting down on salts, sugars and fats."

Other USDA Food and Nutrition Service programs include Food Stamps, Women, Infants and Children Program, and various commodity food programs.

USDA spent more than $20 billion nationally on food programs in 1985.

Panel seeks to...

The newly created Blue Ribbon Committee on the Improvement of Teaching as a Profession has scheduled its first meeting of this fall.

The State Board of Education (SBE) created the 36-member panel to review state policy regarding teachers in light of recommendations from national studies on teaching by the Holmes Group and the Carnegie Task Force on Education and the Economy.

They will be followed by State Superintendent Ted Sanders and Assistant Superintendent Sue Bentz, who will present reports on the teaching profession in Illinois.

Although the two national reports have a number of things in common, the study groups have identified changes in teacher training and proposes a three-tiered teaching profession that differentiates among teachers based on education, experience, performance and knowledge.

The Carnegie report provides a broad framework for revamping the profession. Most notably, it calls for establishing national standards for teaching accreditation, creating a hierarchy among teachers with "lead teachers" assuming leadership responsibility at the school level—and making teacher salaries competitive with those of other professions.

Members of the Blue Ribbon Committee were appointed by the state superintendent in consultation with State Board Chairman Walter W. Naumer Jr. The membership comprised of three members of the State Board of Education, one of whom chairs the committee, three members of the Board of Higher Education, four legislators, representatives of major education and business organizations, and members of the general public and business community.

Carol E. Ebert of Naperville, a member and former chairman of the board of Carson Pierce Scott and Co. and a member of the State Board of Education, will chair the Blue Ribbon Committee.

The State Board is also represented by Thomas Lay Burroughs of Collinsville, the board's vice chairman, and Denene Wilmet of Decatur.

The Board of Higher Education is represented by Carol Lohman of Springfield, and by Patricia and Warren Bacon of Chicago, who is also chief executive officer of Chicago United.

Student actors will entertain at 4 schools

The Entertainers, students in Granite City High School's acting program, will tour junior high schools and parochial schools on Oct. 28. The Entertainers are under the direction of F. Gordon Mueller, speech and drama teacher at the high school.

They will perform original skits, songs and dances at four schools: Grigsby Jr. High at 8:45 a.m., Coolidge Jr. High at 10:15 a.m., Sacred Heart at 11:10 a.m. and St. Elizabeth School at 1:15 p.m.

Acts performed on the tour include: Beach Boys medley, Opposites, Monster Reunion, Smokey the Bear, New Attitude, Bartles & Jaymes, Family Lies, Don't Mess with Dr. Dream, Money Money, Halo-ween Baby Contest, 75 Ways to Get out of a Babysitter, Walking on Sunshine, and Twist and Shout.

Two at Wesleyan

Timothy C. Bishop, 2684 Grand Ave., Granite City, College of Liberal Arts, and Craig V. Patton, 2172 Harrison Ave., Granite City, College of Liberal Arts, are among the freshmen who have enrolled at Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington.

Warrior 'mudders' take charge

Win at Alton keeps playoff hopes alive

By Dave Whaley

Staff writer

ALTON — It was the type of night where your list of things to do wouldn't include standing outside to watch a football game.

But, as Bob Stegemeier said, "Any night's a good night for football if you win."

The Warriors' defensive coordinator said that as he ran for the warmth and dryness of the locker room after Granite City's muddy 17-7 triumph over the Alton Redbirds Friday night. It wasn't one of your typical Warrior wins, with Tim and Jamie Hogan filling the air with footfalls and spectacular pass/catch plays, but it did the job.

Granite City, which had not won since its epic upset of East St. Louis Oct. 4, moved up to 4-0 in Southwestern Conference play and 6-2 overall. Coupled with Belleville East's 13-0 win over Belleville West Friday, the win sets up an SVC showdown next Friday night in Belleville. The Lancers are 3-1 in the conference and 6-2 overall.

A win by the Warriors gives them the title outright for the first time since 1946 and Granite City's first appearance in the playoffs since 1981 (North High School). A loss sets up a likely triple tie with East St. Louis.

"If it comes down to that, anything could happen," said head coach Ron Yates. "The conference has a way to break the tie, but I don't know what it is."

But first things first. In order to set up that Warrior-Lancer showdown, the Warriors had to slip and slide past the Redbirds. And it wasn't easy, as a pre-game mist got harder as the first half went on. Moving the ball and scoring figured to be difficult, so Granite City didn't waste any time.

On the seventh play from scrimmage, on first down from the Alton 40, Paul Sutter swept left end and scooted down the sidelines for the first score of the night after only 3:22. Jim Parker's PAT made it 7-0.

The two teams then traded turnovers, with Tony Herd fumbling away to Jamie Hogan and Tim Hogan throwing an interception to Tim Palen.

But after an Alton punt landed in the end zone, the Warriors launched a good drive. It netted 66 yards on 12 plays and featured a great catch and run by Sutter for 22 yards. Terry Stanley had a 10-yard run to give the Warriors first down at the 12, but the Hogans twice failed to connect on pass plays. But Parker connected on a 32-yard field goal for a 10-0 lead with 9:37 to play in the half.

Tim Hogan had 90 yards passing on 11 of 16, pushing him over 1,000 yards on the season. Jamie had three catches for 35 yards.

"The weather hurt our passing game," Yates said. "We usually like to do a little more with the Hogans. But we turned to some other things."

Like the running of Stanley (49 yards) and Sutter (38).

Alton's only burst of offense came three plays after the field goal, when Herd shot 50 yards around left end for a touchdown with 7:45 left in the half. James Cochran's PAT made it 10-7.

"We wanted to shut down Herd and (Tony) Cross," Yates said. "If you contain those two, you beat Alton. Herd had the one big play, but you have to expect that from a good runner."

But the Warriors came right back, as Tim Hogan made nice gains on two scrambles and a face mask penalty moved them to the 15. A 13-yard Hogan-to-Hogan pass set up first and goal at the 2, and Tim Hogan eventually snuck over from a yard out with 3:23 left for a 17-7 edge.

The field was a quagmire by then, and moving the football became a chore for both sides in the second half. The Warriors had 11 first downs in the opening 24 minutes, but added only one more, and they netted minus three yards rushing in the second half (126 total).

Sophomore quarterback Joe Musgrove came on and added some life to Alton's offense, completing 6 of 12 for 64 yards, but the Granite City defense stiffened at the right times.

And while Jamie Hogan didn't have a banner night catching the

'Any night's a good night for football if you win.'

—Bob Stegemeier
Granite City
defensive coordinator

ball, he came through in the clutch with his punting. A series of sacks and penalties left the Warriors with fourth down and 42 yards late in the game at their own 28. Under a rush, Jamie got off a 52-yard punt to back the Redbirds up, and they never threatened again.

"We expected Alton to be ready to play us after what happened last year," Yates said, referring to the Warriors' 17-12 upset of an apparently playoff-bound Alton team in 1985. "And we were wondering about our next win. You don't want to start out 5-0 and end up 5-4. We got back to doing some things tonight, and our defense played much better."

"We talked about that all week," said Alton coach Collins James of the revenge factor. "But after playing so well against East St. Louis last week (20-15 loss), we weren't ready tonight."

The Redbirds are 1-7 and 0-4 in the SVC. They had 105 yards rushing, but 50 of that came on one run. They had 189 total yards and seven first downs, while the Warriors had 216 yards. Jamie Hogan and Eric Ryterski each had three catches, and Len Whiteside added 22 yards on the ground.

Madison wins

The Madison Trojans scored two second-half touchdowns to beat Flora 16-0 on the road Friday. Quincy Williams had a one-yard run in the third quarter, and Angelo Cross went 20 yards in the fourth period. Cross added two-point runs after both scores. The Trojans broke a three-game losing streak and are 4-4. They end the season at Hardin Calhoun next Friday.

Spikers lose

WENDY KNOLLMAN of the Warrior volleyball team delivers a shot over the net during Thursday's regular season finale at home against Belleville East. The Warriors lost to the Lancers to finish the regular season at 11-14. They open regional play at home Tuesday against Triad. Details on page 8B.

Second half burst dooms Granite City

By Gregg Ochoa

Executive Sports Editor

GRANITE CITY — For 40 minutes the Warrior soccer team looked unbeatable, then the roof fell in.

Four second-half goals by St. Louis U. High took the wind from the Warrior sails, as Granite City fell 4-1 to the Junior Billikens at the Gauntlet Thursday night. It was the regular season finale for the Warriors.

Granite City (14-4-3) will now await the winner of the Marquette-Wood River game in the regional semifinals. That game will be held Monday at Granite City.

For the Junior Billikens, the win was SLUH's second over the Warriors. Earlier in the month, SLUH handed Granite City its first loss in the Tournament of Champions.

The game was played in a steady mist which gradually got harder as the match wore on. The Warriors came out strong in the first half and outshot SLUH 7-5 after two periods.

"Despite the loss, some very good things came out of the game," said Warrior coach Gene Baker. "Our first half was just great soccer."

Freshman Troy Adamitis scored Granite City's only goal at 16:46 on an assist from John Van-Buskirk after a scramble in front of the SLUH goal.

The play resulted after Todd Adamitis' direct kick bounced off the crossbar. The ball went to Van-Buskirk in front, but he managed a weak shot. Troy Adamitis, however, was there to put the rebound away.

Granite City dominated play throughout. Senior Greg Bailey almost had another goal for the Warriors, but his header skipped over top of the goal.

In the second period, Granite City ty continued to dominate as the Junior Billikens slowly but the wet field conditions. The Warriors' best opportunity came six minutes into the period when Jason Smith beat two defenders to the corner and kicked a pass in front of the goal. Scott Strack connected with the leading header, but his shot went over the top of the net.

Strack, a senior forward, played a great half. At one point in the second quarter he forced two straight throw-ins as a result of his hustle.

As good as the first half was for Granite City, SLUH countered with a strong effort in the next two periods.

After receiving a tongue-lashing from coach Ebbie Dunn, the Junior Billikens stormed Granite City after the intermission.

During the first five minutes, SLUH peppered the Warriors' goal with three quick shots.

The Junior Bills went ahead 2-1 on a questionable goal at the 54:30 mark. It appeared that no less than three SLUH players were off-side when Dan Kitts chipped a direct kick over the Warrior defense. Steve LaVigne was the beneficiary, as Krekovich had no side.

Warriors drop finale to East

By John Twombly
Correspondent

GRANITE CITY — After a high school volleyball match between host Granite City and the Belleville East Lancers, the Lancer head coach was talking to a reporter.

Ron Stephenson had just seen his team defeat Granite City 15-11, 14-16, 15-4.

The reporter asked Stephenson the usual "what went wrong and what went right" questions.

It seemed Stephenson was finished talking.

His eyes were fixed on something.

He paused.

He pointed at what he was observing — a huddled group of varsity Warrior players listening to first-year head coach Don Deterding.

"They're a good ball club. They're coming around. They certainly play us tough," he said, nodding.

"You don't win third in the (Belleville) West tourney without being a good ballclub. They're better than their record."

Warrior volleyball fans will drink to that, Coach.

Granite City has a final regular-season record of 11-14. The Warriors will take on Triad Tuesday at home in regionals. Belleville East is 18-8 and will play Althoff Tuesday in regionals.

The Lancers have a hitter who, in the end, dominated the match. When that hitter, Kim Moorleghen, jumps up and thumps the ball, stick a radar gun on it and watch the digital readout increase; it's best to get out of the ball's path.

And although Moorleghen had five spikes in the first game alone, there were plenty of uncounted hits in the match that were returned by some brave Warriors.

"There's two things that beat us," explained Deterding after the game. "One, we missed four serves in the beginning of the third game. Two, this Kim, this number six, she's an outstanding player for her size. I'm sure she got the points that beat us."

Moorleghen, indeed, was quite a factor in the Belleville East win. There's no doubt she won't be missed next year by opposing teams when she's graduated from high school.

In the first game, the Lancers appeared headed to winning ugly. They led 11-1 on the strength of Moorleghen's three-step, hit, watch-ball-hit-floor serve.

Lancer Renee Kuchel had one spike to add to Moorleghen's two. But the Warriors came back.

The pass, set and watch-it-go play of Warrior frontliners Beth Earney, Sandy Sternberg and Lisa Mills assisted Tammy LaVault in her serving efforts to make it 11-6 Lancers.

As East's Michelle McPherson served, the Lancers lead went to 14-6.

The Warriors got three more points. Then it was Belleville East's turn to serve.

With one point needed to win, it seemed as though the Lancers had the first game wrapped because Moorleghen was serving.

"Oh my God," said a surprised spectator when the Warriors stood up to the serve and got the ball back.

Marla Toeniskoetter served for the Warriors, who cut the Lancer lead to 14-11.

Even though Granite City gave it that of college...er, high school try, they went down to defeat.

According to Deterding it was a typical game for the Warriors.

chance on the shot.

"That goal was really critical," Baker said. "It changes the whole way we play them."

The tally sparked new life in the SLUH players, who added two more goals in the fourth period.

"They have that killer instinct," Baker said of the Junior Bills, the No. 1-ranked team in the metro area. "When they get you down, they usually put a team away."

Just 39 seconds into the final quarter, Dave Nelson picked up a loose ball in the box and moved to the goal. Krekovich came out to dive for the ball, the two collided, and Dave Kosteski got the free ball and drove it home.

Granite City's best chance of the half was a rocket launched by Brett Bjorkman that hit the crossbar midway through the fourth period.

Krekovich, who made 10 saves in the game, was tested again as Wolfe stole the ball at midfield for a breakthrough. Krekovich handled his bouncing shot.

SLUH (14-1) wrapped up the scoring with 34 seconds left on a goal by Nelson. SLUH's only loss this year has been to DeSmet, a team the Warriors beat 9-0.

NOTES: Granite City finished as co-champions of the Southwestern Conference after Collinsville beat Belleville West 5-0 Thursday. The game ended at 6-1-1 in SWC play. The Warrior junior varsity tied SLUH 3-3 and finished the season at 15-0-2.

"We start in a hole and then we bury ourselves. There's a heck of a comeback, but too much of a hole to climb. We had good passes, Lisa (Mills) put up some good sets and we'll get the hit. But we just bury ourselves and it's too much of a hole to climb," said Deterding, who didn't hesitate to call time when he saw the Warriors digging that hole.

In the second game, Granite City had a 12-7 lead. Tammy LaVault could be heard almost screaming for the ball.

Guess who served while Belleville East came back to take a 13-12 lead? If you've read this far and know the correct answer — right, Moorleghen.

Granite City eventually took the lead 15-14, and the Warriors congratulated each other on the court when a ball deflected off a Lancer player and went deep out of bounds.

Apparently, someone noticed in time, amid shouts from the crowd, that a Lancer player had saved the ball. No problem, though, because Wendy Knollman spiked the ball for the victory.

It was a dramatic win for the Warriors, but not the highlight of the season.

Lisa Mills and Deterding each said the tournament victory against powerhouse East St. Louis was the high moment of the regular season.

The third game of the match against the Lancers wasn't much of a high moment, though.

From 4-3 to 10-3 and from 10-4 to 15-4, the Lancers led throughout.

NOTES: Granite City will be relying next year on Mills, Earney, Knollman and LaVault. All are juniors.

The other game in the regional tournament at Granite City is between Edwardsville (18-4) and Roxana (2-10). The Triad (12-9) game is scheduled to begin 7:45 p.m. Tuesday. The title game is scheduled for Thursday at 7 p.m. Against East, the Lancer jayvee also won 15-4, 15-9.
